

First 5 Curved Bars Awarded To O.L.P.H. Girl Scouts

Awarding of five Curved Bars, highest Girl Scout honor, featured the fifth birthday of Girl Scouts and Brownies of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish on Nov. 3.

The observance opened with attendance at Mass and reception of Holy Communion in a body.

IN THE FIRST ceremony of its kind in the parish the Curved Bars were presented to Mary Lou Richardson, Elaine Yeager, Barbara Roberts, Dorothy Huss and Judith Ann Keller of Troop 221. These girls started as Brownies in the first troop to be organized five years ago.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frank J. Hoelen, pastor, presented the pins immediately after Mass, assisted by the Rev. James E. Baker, chaplain. Other guests included Mrs. John Blitner, president of Ladies Auxiliary No. 45, Knights of St. John, sponsors, Audrey Reinhardt, girl scout district chairman and Dolores Roberts, auxiliary representative.

Leaders of award recipients' troop are Jessie Keller, Bernice Gerstner, Evelyn Bennett and Helers Mielck.

Communion breakfast in the school hall under the direction of Mrs. Marie Keller was served by girls from Our Lady's High School Sodality.

Aquinas Tops Watertown, McQuaid Wins Final Game

The Knights of McQuaid Jesuit High School and the Little Irish of Aquinas Institute both emerged victorious in gridiron contests last Saturday. Aquinas defeated Watertown High School 18-14 at Watertown, while McQuaid closed its season by beating Livonia Central 27-7.

McQuaid scored the first three times they took possession of the ball. Livonia, the Livingston County champs, had been unbeaten in ten starts. Bill Meagher ran 91 yards on the opening kickoff for the first McQuaid score.

The Knight have a 5-2 record for their first varsity season. A LAST PERIOD touch down by fullback Greg Riley, who broke through tackle from the Rest 24-31, Stadler Mkt. 23-32, 35 yard line, gave Aquinas its second victory of the season. Watertown scored first on a 60 yard dash by Ronnie Crandall.

HOW

How is it that so many clubs, fraternal organizations and corporations always seem so prosperous?

The answer may lie with the treasurer. Chances are he not only makes sure that all money due comes in, but that surplus funds are earning highest interest.

He probably has money in a saving account at Columbia Banking earning the highest rate—big 3% dividends—compounded monthly and paid twice yearly.

Tell your treasurer about these PLUS returns. Suggest he start saving now at Columbia Banking, 31 Main Street East and in Newark, New York.

POSTER CONTEST RULES at St. Charles Borromeo School, Greece, are explained by Mrs. Raymond Blind (left) and Carl Hill of Harvest Festival publicity committee. Being briefed are Linda Wandke, 7th grade and David Callahan, 6th grade.

St. Charles School Pupils Compete in Poster Contest

One of the largest promotion groups ever to work under one roof is pushing ahead with publicity plans for a Harvest Festival in St. Charles Borromeo Parish. The group is most of the student body at the Dewey Avenue School working individually on posters for a contest just announced.

A FACILITY committee of judges will pick the winning posters for a special display on Nov. 13. The display will be part of the School Open House on that date.

Awards to the winners will be made two nights later at the Harvest Festival. There will be two prize winners from each grade.

According to Max Corraella, Co-chairman of the Harvest Festival the winning posters will be part of the Thanksgiving theme in St. Charles Hall on the Festival rights. The start of a new parish Administration Building and Rectory is the goal of the two-night affair.

Festival dates are Friday and Saturday, Nov. 15 & 16.

Harpis To Hold Dance, Elections

UP TO 40% DISCOUNT ON CHRISTMAS GIFTS! BUY AT WHOLESALE PRICES WITH "TEPEES"

WHAT IS A "TEPEE"?
"Tepee" is the popular name for a Wegman Treasure Plan Certificate (taking the "T" from the word "Treasure" and the "P" from "Plan"). Each Tepee is a certificate worth 10¢ on the purchase of goods at wholesale prices.

HOW DO I GET THEM?
Buy Tepees for 10¢ each from any Wegman cashier. You may buy one with each dollar in purchases. If you spend $10, for example, you may buy up to ten Tepees.

WHY SHOULD I BUY THEM?
"Tepees" are the new easy way to buy the things you need for your home and family at wholesale prices. Choose any of the premiums shown in Wegman's free catalog and use "Tepees" to cash in for them.

HOW MUCH CAN I SAVE?
Buying goods at wholesale prices is what you do with Tepees. nets you savings of 20% to 40% on most items. On some things the savings are even more. You NEVER pay the full retail price when you buy with Tepees.

HOW DO I REDEEM THEM?
Choose what you want from Wegman's big new premium catalog, and pay for it with Tepees instead of cash. You buy Tepees for 10¢ each and they are worth 10¢ each on premiums at the store office in any Wegman Super Market. If you need quick cash each "Tepee" is worth 10¢ in cash at Wegman's.
