150 Prospective Nurse Students Visit Hospital

An Open House program was held at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira Thursday afternoon, Oct. 31. About 150 area high school Juniors and Seniors interested in nursing as a career visited the Nurses' association, accompanied by their parents. Some of the students were also in attendance. Notre Dame, Southside and Elmira Free Academy students made up the group as well as representatives of high schools in Waverly, Sayre, Corning, Palatka, Post, Bath, Geneva, Hornell and Binghamton.

At the conclusion of the panel, Sister Ann Maurice, Director of Nursing, expressed her pleasure for the excellent representation of area schools, and encouraged the visitors to ask any questions. The program concluded with an informal social hour and refreshments.

Sister Anne Maurice, assisted by Sister Marie Michael, Educational Director and faculty members were in charge of arrangements for Open House. Student Nurses assisted as hostesses to the group.
