

50 Academy Students Named To Honor Society

Induction of 50 new members into Bishop McQuaid Chapter of the National Honor Society will take place at a meeting of the Nazareth PTA Nov. 20.

Membership in this society is said to be one of the greatest honors a school can confer on a student. Selection for this honor is based on the virtues of character, scholarship, leadership and service, virtues emphasized by the National Council in Washington and portrayed symbolically in the national emblem.

Squires Circle Praised By KC Leader

Auburn — William Piedmont, a representative of the Supreme Council, Knights of Columbus, paid an official visit to Columbian Squires Circle 112 of St. Alphonsus Church, Sunday, Nov. 10. John Cowen, chief squire, presided and introduced the speaker.

Outlining the 1957-58 program for the Squires, the speaker said the St. Alphonsus Circle, founded in November 1933 by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frederick C. Straub, V.F., is the "best-known circle in the world."

To substantiate this claim he pointed out that "During the past 24 years this circle has won more monthly, quarterly and Circle of the Year awards than any other circle in existence."

Msgr. Straub, pastor of St. Alphonsus, Rev. Robert G. Kreckel, assistant pastor and Father Prior of the Circle as well as Robert Mayer, Kevin D. Maloney and Leo A. Puckley, lay counselors, attended the meeting.

In addition to the honor conferred the local organization sponsors both social and educational programs for the benefit of its members throughout the year.

Mercy Mission Days Have Twofold Purpose

Mission Days at Our Lady of Mercy High School will benefit both the missions and the Mercy Building Fund this year. The missions will benefit from the activities on Friday, Nov. 22 and the building fund on Saturday, Nov. 23.

The annual Catholic Student Mission Crusade activities will begin today, Nov. 15 with a sacrifice day for the missionaries. The day will begin with Mass and the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed all day.

It has also been voted a "whisper day" according to a student vote with complete silence at all lunch periods. Each girl will bring a donation for the bazaar today.

MOTHER MARY BENEDICT, M.D., of the Medical Missionary Sisters will be guest speaker Nov. 21. Last month she was named head of the newly created American Province of the Society of Roman Catholic Medical Missionaries.

Mother will tell the students of her missionary experiences. She spent nine years as a nurse in East Pakistan.

The magazine drive for mission day will conclude on Monday, Nov. 18. Final returns are expected to top the $15,000 goal.

McQuaid Students Visit Washington

One hundred and five, fourth and third year men of McQuaid Jesuit High School have returned from a trip to Washington, D.C. and New York City. The group led by Father McNamara stopped briefly in New York at Hotel Commodore. After a tour of the city by bus and a visit to its outstanding sights, the group departed on a whirlwind tour of the nation's capital.

While in Washington the boys visited Capitol Hill, The Smithsonian Institute, the White House, the Supreme Court building, the Building of Artifacts, the FBI Headquarters, the Milk George town University and the Washington Monument.

A brief stop at the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., a short stop at Woodstock College to reacquaint the students with ex-faculty members completed the trip.

Student Council Planned At DeSales High School

Geneva—A student council at last is in the offing at DeSales High School. This fact was learned in a recent interview with the newly-appointed principal of DeSales, the Rev. John A. Morgan.

Father Morgan said he hoped to begin the Council after the students return to school after the Christmas vacation.

Many have expressed their wish for a student Council at D.H.S. and it is expected that it will receive the whole-hearted support of the student body.

ASKED if anything was new in the near future at DeSales, Father Morgan answered that he plans to begin a school paper, something which DeSales in past years has not had. A new name is being sought for the paper.

Father Morgan indicated that he was pleased with his new position as principal of the Putney Street School and happy to be stationed in Geneva. He expressed his gratitude for the friendliness and courtesy shown him by the people.

Eagle Awards Given Two

John Doble, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Doble of Moulton St. and David Marx, son of Mr. and Mrs. Girard Marx of Van Stalle St., were given Eagle Awards at the 1957 Court of Honor of Troop 82 in Our Lady of Perpetual Help School hall on Nov. 1. The Eagles were presented by Vincent State, Iroquois district executive.

Numerous pins and merit badges were distributed by Commissioners Gerry Marx, Sterling Turzloff, Arthur Kaufman and Herb Hoebel. Committeemen Dick Boesel, Louis Maier and Frank Mayer also made presentations.

Rev. James Baker, troop chaplain, in a short talk, defined present good scouting as the foundation for future good citizenship.

Les Burke, committee chairman, presided as master of ceremonies.

Victory Dance Set At McQuaid High

The Black and Gold Victory Dance sponsored by the McQuaid Jesuit High Athletic Council will be held Friday, Nov. 15, from 9:30 p.m. to midnight, in the school cafeteria. Warren Bowman and his orchestra will furnish the music. From advance sale of the tickets more than 300 couples will attend.

Dennis Costach is chairman and his staff includes Martin Glogowski and Paul Nohelrich, decorations; Wes Huff and Joseph DiPrima, business, and John Podslado, refreshments. Featured among the decorations will be a pictorial history of McQuaid's football season.

According to Father McNamara, S.J., moderator of the Athletic Council, the purpose of the dance is to honor all the members of foot ball, soccer and cross country teams.

With The Catholic War Veterans

Attinasi Elected

Francis Ross Attinasi was elected commander of Holy Rosary Veterans at a special meeting held in Holy Rosary School hall. The Rev. James F. Doyle, assistant pastor of Holy Rosary will continue as post and auxiliary chaplain.
