With a view to permanent secretarial positions in the near future, 32 Commercial Club members of Nazareth Academy are serving as private secretaries for the faculty.

'Gabriel' Wins High Honors For Nazareth Staff

The Gabriel, Nazareth Academy student newspaper, won high honors at the Empire State Scholastic Press Association Convention held in Syracuse and so did its editor, Marlene Wozniak.

During the annual awards presentation the Gabriel scored seven victories. First place newspaper of national place, first place cartoon, second place, Item Race, second place, third place, Linda G. of sports writing, Marlene Wozniak, news writing, Judith Nollan, news writing, and to the newspaper front page for its editorial.

IN COMPETITION with representatives from state-wide high schools Marlene earned a $500 full scholarship to St. Vincent University School of Journalism. This scholarship was awarded on the basis of a news writing contest held at the convention.

Deen Wozniak, editor of the school newspaper at Hotel Syracuse, Marlene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Wozniak, 173 Pershing Drive, she is a member of St. Anthony's Parish.

Other honors awarded the 1956-57 edition of the Gabriel include: All Catholic, Catholic School Press Association at Marquette University, Medford, N.J., Scholastic Press Association, Columbia University, International Honor Award, Quill and Scroll International Honor Society for High School Journalists, State University of Iowa, and First Place in the Rochester Area Catholic Schools Division of the Gannett Newspapers Scholastic Publications Competition.

Alumni to Receive Graduates of 1958 of the College of Mount Saint Vincent, Riverview, New York City, will be formally received into the Alumnae Association on Sunday, Nov. 24 at 6 p.m.
