Inquiry Class Opens In Ontario

First classes of the Inquiry Class at St. Mary of the Lake Parish Hall, Ontario were reported well attended.

The subject: "God, Man and Happiness" was comprehensively covered by the Rev. Raymond Booth, assistant pastor on Wednesday night and by the Rev. James O'Connell, pastor on Sunday afternoon.

All in attendance are looking forward to the subject of "Is Christ Really God." Classes are split, it is said, to enable the greater number of persons to attend at their convenience.

This series of free lectures will last about 20 weeks and is open to the general public. Anyone with a question is asked to bring it to the Inquiry Class.

Doctors' Wives Bake Sale Set As Centennial Event

With the Sisters of Charity celebrating their Centennial Year, the doctors' wives of St. Mary's Staff Auxiliary are planning their baked food sale to result in a substantial contribution to St. Mary's Hospital.

The sale will be held in the hospital auditorium, Wednesday, Dec. 4 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This year, the sale which was instituted in 1948 under the direction of Mrs. Joseph O'Connor, president and Mrs. Montgomery Leary will have two new booths. The food sale is under the direction of Mrs. Maxwell Weingarten and Mrs. Erwin Boerschlein.

THE NEW BOOTHS will include baskets of various sizes and assortments supervised by Mrs. Raymond Sommers and a religious article booth directed by Mrs. Stephen Buckley.

A snack bar where wives can have lunch with their husbands is planned. This project is supervised by Mrs. Louis Guzzetta and Mrs. Ross Stagnitto. In the apron booth will be added the work apron for children. Mrs. Joseph O'Connor and Mrs. James Carroll are making these items.

Mrs. Victor Tofany will have charge of the fudge booth. Mrs. John Butler will arrange for plenty of pies and Mrs. Edward Callahan and Mrs. Perry Vayo an assortment of cookies and cakes.

Orders for special fruit cake from Georgia are being filled by Mrs. Raymond Salamone. Decorations and other activities are being handled by Mesdames John Ninfo, Robert Corcoran, James Mooney, Thomas Treiber and Milton Rapp.

THE AUXILIARY was founded in 1931 at the suggestion of Mrs. Benjamin Duffy Sr. Before the hospital aides were organized, the staff wives helped with sewing and supplies.

They also initiated numerous social events such as card parties to raise money for equipment, including oxygen machines and various surgical supplies. No request from the Sisters, it is recalled, was ever too big or too small for this group, whether redecorating a room or furnishing a new room, or a request for a rug in the nurses' home or an organ for the Sisters' Chapel.
