2 Greatest Symbols Cited At St. Casimir Flag Rite

A flag was presented to the newly formed Girl Scout Troop of St. Casimir Parish, Elmira in the school auditorium, last week. Commander Frank Post, American Legion president.

Presentation was made by Attorney Joseph B. Hayes.

Explaining the meaning of symbols, Philip M. Sutton cited the two which stand out above the rest, the Cross of Christ and the flags of the United States of America.

"THE CROSS, he said, is the greatest of all symbols. It reminds us of the wonderful, never-ending love that Christ suffered and died on the cross for our sins. It reminds us that every day we again sacrifice ourselves for us on the altar of our Church."

"It reminds us that God is the greatest of all beings; that He made everything. Without God there would be nothing, no people, no sun, no moon, no world, no stars, just empty, dark, cold, silent space."

"The greatest among us are just little people, made by Him; to know Him, to love Him, to serve Him in this world and to be happy with Him in Heaven."

"Our flag is second in importance to the Cross because our country depends on God for its very existence. Our flag is the symbol of the ideals of our country and the people who founded it."
