All State High Choir Lists Nazareth Students

Highlighting the New York State School Music Association Convention will be the appearance of the All-State High School Choir, Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Eastman Theater.

Nazareth Academy Perosian Choir members, Mary Mazzara and Rozanne Lourette, will participate. These students were chosen in a state-wide competition which involved auditions. More than 600 students tried out.

The choir is under the direction of Mr. Allen Lennon, who is Associate Professor of Choral Music at Boston University.

OTHER PERFORMING groups will include the All-State High School Orchestra and Band. The four-day program will feature concerts; clinics, vocal and instrumental; panel groups; and student meetings.

Also attending the convention are the following Nazareth students: Donna D'Augustino, Mary Catherine Serafine, Patricia Emmons, Ruth Satter, Frances Sellitto, and Joyce Tasketta.

Martin Moll Elected By Board

Martin Q. Moll, president of Christopher Press, Inc. was elected president of the Board of Advisors of Catholic Youth Organization at the annual meeting.

Also elected were: John A. Dale, vice president; Anthony R. Ralph, secretary; G. Thomas Emmanuel, recording secretary.

A report on the 1957 membership drive and a program report were made to the board.

Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, diocesan director of youth activities, in the absence of Miss Mary Sheehan, of the board, outlined a set of personnel standards.
