

Nazareth Grad Named To State Commerce Post

Miss Rose M. Ferro, a graduate of Nazareth College, was appointed to the Women's Council of the New York State Department of Commerce.

Miss Ferro, who lives at 2015 Elmwood Ave., is a Vice-president of the Fred E. DeBlase construction firm. On the Council she will replace Dean Margaret Habel of the University of Rochester who has moved to Kansas.

The Council is an advisory group to the Commerce Department and is made up of outstanding New York State women from the fields of business, labor, education, publications and the professions. Members serve without pay.

The chairman of the Women's Council, Mrs. Catherine V. Fitzgerald is planning to conduct a career clinic at Nazareth College in March. Mrs. Fitzgerald, and Mrs. Joyce Austin, her vice-chairman, have been in Rochester to discuss details of the clinic with Sister Eva Marie of Nazareth.

Edward Buckley Services Held

Willard — Funeral services for Edward B. Buckley, a former Willard postmaster, were held from his home and at Holy Cross Church, Ovid, on Nov. 25. Mon-signor Joseph J. Sullivan, pastor, was celebrant of the Mass assisted by the Rev. Henry Blaser and the Rev. Michael J. Tydings.

Mr. Buckley, a native of Penn Yan, was a retired horticulturist at Willard State Hospital and was active in civic affairs. He died Nov. 22, 1957, following a short illness.

At the time of his death he was chairman of the board of assessors and custodian of voting machines in the town of Romulus. He served as Romulus Democratic committee man for many years.

Survivors include his wife, Elizabeth; a daughter, Mrs. Raymond McGrain; one son, Roland of Auburn; a brother, Joseph of Penn Yan; a grand daughter and several nieces and nephews.

Bearers were Chris. Karlson, Joseph Luppino, David Covert, Justin Martin, Orion McGuire and Clinton Vreeland.

Burial was in St. Michael Cemetery, Penn Yan, where the Rev. Francis Waterstrat conducted the services.
