Aquinas Debating Society Takes Tourney Top Honors

The Debating Society of Aquinas Institute took top honors last Saturday in an invitational debate tournament held at Norwich.

In the "A" or experienced division, Aquinas, represented by seniors Daniel Shaughnessy and Gerard Frank, and juniors John Miller and Graydon Vaccas achieved a perfect record of six wins and no losses to capture first place.

In the "B" or semi-experienced division, senior John Roberts, junior Paul Haney, and sophomores David Perry and Charles Garland attained a score of four wins and two losses to give them second place.

The boys were accompanied by Rev. E. Kline, C.S.B., a teacher at Aquinas. Also in the tournament were Utica Catholic Academy of Utica and teams from schools in East Hartford, Norwich, and Saugerties, N.Y.

Monaco Envoy Vatican City (NC) - The new Minister from Monaco, to the Holy See, Cesar Charles Solimite, presented his credentials to Pope Pius XII during a brief ceremony in the Vatican.
