At the speakers' table were the Rev. John Duffy, moderator; the Rev. Raymond Ringwood and the Rev. John A. Morgan, principal of DeSales High School.

Mrs. James Walker, president, welcomed members and guests.

THIS CHRISTMAS GIVE A UNITED STATES SAVINGS BOND
A SALUTE TO WAVERLY, IOWA, U.S.A.
Humanity Versus Bigotry

Out in Waverly, Iowa, there occurred a bright incident that we hope will echo around the world and be widely repeated. There, a Korean Hero, Air Force Captain Virgil A. Daniels, applied and was accepted for an apartment in a new housing development. Captain Daniels, a negro, has a wife and three children. He was glad to be accepted for the apartment, because it would put him 21 miles closer to his job, at a radar installation. But he hesitated to move in, he had heard reports of RACIAL PRESSURES. Townsman and prospective neighbors also heard the rumors. They acted in a way to warm the hearts of all who believe in DECENCY and DEMOCRACY. An all white delegation invited Captain Daniels to a meeting. They presented him with the keys to his apartment. They also presented him with a petition signed by all other residents of the housing unit, urging him to move in and assuring him and his family that they would be warmly welcomed.

In doing so, the people of Waverly have written their own splendid answer on the subject of HUMANITY VERSUS BIGOTRY. This in our opinion is a concrete example of the workings of a Democracy at its highest peak. You can help keep it this way by investing in your country's future as well as your own by purchasing

DeSales Sodality Aids Needy Families Of Geneva

Geneva—The Sodality of Our Lady at DeSales High School brought happiness to various Geneva homes during Thanksgiving holidays.

The different units of the Sodality filled several large baskets with everything for a Thanksgiving dinner, gaily decorated them, and sent them out to various needy families in the city. This practice is a yearly one with the Sodality and is a part of its program of Christian charity carried on the year around.

The Sodality is now in the midst of plans for its annual Christmas play which will be presented Sunday, Dec. 22, in the DeSales Auditorium.

THIS YEAR'S holiday play will be entirely different from the past productions according to the students. DeSales Glee Club directed by Henry Sedorovitz will take part in the presentation. Mr. Sedorovitz recently assumed the directorship of the Glee Club.

The Sodality held its monthly breakfast in the Knights of Columbus Home recently following attendance at Mass in St. Stephen Church.

The Rev. John Duffy, assistant pastor of St. Stephen Church, spoke briefly.

The breakfast programs are part of the Sodality's yearly calendar of spiritual exercises. It is open to all De Sales students.
