

New Luxury Line Of Homes Announced In Our Lady Of Mercy Parish, Greece

Sunday, December 13, will mark the official opening of Caldwell & Cook's new model home designed to better living in the town of Greece. The new home is a two-story affair from Dick Lauer's. The model's purpose will be to show prospective buyers the sort of home that is planned for this area. The builders give dramatic emphasis in the model to the importance of the "walk-out" basement or sub-level area which is distinguished for its recreational, comfort and livability features.

Holden stated that the mid-December opening of the model home sets an unusual precedent among area builders. Jack Caldwell and Jerry Cook feel that the reasons for this date are many. They believe strongly that the building of new homes should not be restricted to the spring, summer and fall seasons. The quality of construction of homes built during the winter months is actually superior to that of those built in the warmer seasons in their opinion.

The materials, too, they claim, suffer less from excessive moisture and subsequent damage. The maintenance of a year-round construction crew enables the builders to retain a high standard of workmanship not found in tracts which are seasonally developed by transient, impermanent labor forces. Caldwell and Cook emphasized that winter building at the same time allows tenancy in the early spring for those who wish to develop their lawns and flower beds in time for summer.

The model will open officially at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday and will subsequently be open for inspection daily from 1 to 9 p.m. Signs will be clearly posted for visitors on Dewey Avenue just north of Northgate Plaza shopping center. Visitors are urged to bring their families.

Pre-Christmas Schedule Listed At Post Office

Extended hours of window services are in effect at the Rochester Main Post Office and all its Stations and Branches.

Postmaster L. B. Cartwright urges patrons to mail Christmas cards early in the day, and to utilize the facilities of the Stations rather than fight the downtown traffic.

He added an excellent tip on obtaining fast delivery of local cards—in addition to separating "Local" from "Out of Town" cards, if patrons who mail in the neighborhood stations will make a bundle of those cards bearing the same zone number as their own, they can be processed for delivery within the station itself, and as much as 2 days gained on delivery.

Schedule of Post Office hours follows:

Main Office — Week days through Saturday, Dec. 21. Parcel Post and Stamps, 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Money Orders, 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.; Registry, 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.; Sundays, Dec. 15 and Dec. 22. Parcel Post and Stamps, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Money Orders—up service; Registry, 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Stations and Branches Week Days through Saturday, Dec. 21. All Window Services, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Sundays, Dec. 15, noon to 7 p.m.; Dec. 22, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Mrs. Mekos Elected Wanda Circle Head

Wanda Circle Ladies of St. Casimir Church, Elmira will conduct the Christmas supper and party in the school hall, Sunday, Dec. 15 at 6 p.m.

Gifts will be exchanged and carols sung.

Gifts For Poor To Be Brought To Golden Mass

Gifts of food and other items for the poor will be brought by students of Our Lady of Mercy High School to the annual Golden Mass in the school auditorium today (Friday). The Mass also commemorates the closing of the centennial year of the Sisters of Mercy in Rochester.

Donations and returns from the Christmas cards being sold by students will be used to furnish food for baskets for 65 needy families in the Rochester area.

Clothing and toys will accompany the baskets when they are delivered on Dec. 23. The project is sponsored annually by the Sodality.

Guild Party Set In Seneca Falls

Seneca Falls — St. Patrick's Guild and Altar Society will hold its annual Christmas party on next Monday evening, Dec. 16 in the auditorium. Mrs. Amelia Martello, president, has appointed Mrs. Teresa Caraccio chairman of the party.

A tureen supper at 7 p.m. will open the festivities. Members are asked to bring their own table service and a dish to pass. Meat, relishes and rolls will be furnished by the committee.

Following the supper, there will be a gift exchange, with Santa Claus distributing the gifts. Each member is particularly requested to put a card in her gift, bearing her own name. It was decided at the November meeting to exchange gifts of a dollar value.

Things may not come to those who wait, but it takes some people a lifetime to find it out.

War Orphans

Patchen-Belgus Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold its 11th annual war orphans Christmas party for children under 15 who have lost their fathers in the service of their country on Dec. 21. The party will be held at the post home, 185 Chestnut St., Rochester at 1 p.m.

Approximately 60 children and "mothers" are expected this year. Each child will be given a gift of his choice within reason. The gifts are donated by post members, merchants and members of the community.
