Party At McQuaid To Aid Poor Families In Rochester

A Christmas party for the parents of the students of McQuaid Jesuit High School will be held in the school's cafeteria Sunday, Dec. 15, at 3 p.m.

The chief purpose of this party is to provide Christmas presents for the children of poor families in the city. The father of each McQuaid student has been invited to bring a gift worth approximately one dollar, marked with the age and the sex of the child for whom the gift is intended.

THESE PRESENTS will be added to the Christmas baskets of food that each of the classes in the school will provide for a few poor families. Any extra gifts will be distributed to other poor children through the Catholic Family Center of the diocese of Rochester.

The Christmas party will be conducted under the co-sponsorship of the Jesuit High School's Mothers and Fathers clubs.

Dr. Peter Badamy and Francis McConville are co-chairmen of the party. Dr. Henry Rohrer will play Santa.

Refreshments will be provided by the Mothers' Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Michael J. Magdo.

A student octette and a Jesuit quartette, directed by Mr. Edmund W. Nagle, S.J., will lead

Webster Student Receives Honor

Miss Mary Louise Haidle, 300 Webster Rd., Webster, is one of six seniors recently named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities by a vote of the faculty and senior class at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, Md.

Miss Haidle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard C. Haidle, is the national delegate to the National Federation of Catholic College Students, a member of the Mission Unit board and the Dramatic Club. She is working towards a bachelor of arts in mathematics.

Selection to Who's Who is made on the basis of sincerity in scholarship, student's excellence in leadership, participation in extracurricular activities, citizenship, and the promise of future usefulness to business and society, and service to the college.

Christmas Formal Ball Set By St. John Fisher Men

The decorations for this Christmas Formal Ball at St. John Fisher College will concentrate on "the astrological phenomena of a winter evening's sky."

The Christmas Formal is being held in Rosina O'Doherty Kearney Auditorium in the college administration building on Dec. 13, commencing at 9 p.m. and lasting till one a.m.

The committee is headed by co-chairmen Donald Molinari and Robert Corleita.

James Forgiome has developed novel lighting effects for both the interior as well as the exterior of the college administration building. Daniel Fahy is providing the clean up committee after the dance. Robert Ritz and Arthur Ingauglietta are handling publicity.

Music for the Ball will be provided by the Billy Traikoff Orchestra, whose leader has played with such top name bands as those of Charlie Barnett, Les Brown, and Hal McIntyre.

Caroline Kowen Mass At St. Augustine's

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline A. Kowen, a pioneer member of St. Augustine Parish was held with Requiem Mass in St. Augustine Church after services in the Joseph A. Murphy Funeral Home, Nov. 27.

Mrs. Kowen, 86, and one of the oldest members of St. Augustine's parish, died Nov. 24, 1957 at her home, 175 Gardiner Ave.

The Funeral Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Walter Fleming with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Duffy also in the Sanctuary.

Mrs. Kowen was a member of St. Augustine Rosary Society.

She is survived by one son, James Francis Kowen, East Rochester; one daughter, Mrs. Ruth English, Chicago, Ill.; and four grandchildren.

Blessing at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery was imparted by the Rev. Leo Lynch.
