The play concerns events at a small crowded inn in Bethlehem on the first Christmas. Guests are too concerned with their personal problems to realize that their Saviour has come, the play brings out.

IN THE CAST are: Vicki Newton as Oclavia, a sophisticated matron, Judy McGrath as Nuria, a lame slave girl; Alberta Harster as the bossy wife of Aard, Kathy Fisher; Karen Weiss as Tirza, the inn keeper; Mary Jo Stanczuk as Our Lady and Kathy McCusker as St. Joseph.

Also Joan Button, Nancy Cierski, Mary Kay Ehmman, Joyce Furlong, Sharon Kelly, Nancy Ruiz, Betty Schnackay and Jo Valent.

To Sing At Eastman

VESTED BOYS' CHOIR of Blessed Sacrament Parish, Rochester, will sing at the Eastman Theatre, Sunday, Dec. 22 under the direction of Sister Mary Claudia. The group will be joined by other choirs in the annual community Christmas Concert with Paul White conducting the Rochester Civic Orchestra. The program will start at 8:15 p.m. Joining with four other choirs, the Blessed Sacrament group will sing "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "Away in a Manger," "Silent Night," and "Hark the Herald Angels Sing."

Supreme Court Reverses Ban On French Movie

Washington — (NC) — The Supreme Court has struck down a Chicago ban against showing the French-made film, "Game of Love."

In its brief "per curiam" order, the nation's highest court simply cited the case of Alberts versus California which it decided last term. There were no arguments before the court.

"GAME OF LOVE" was banned from Chicago movie houses by the Police Censor Board there on the basis that the film was "immoral and obscene." The board is charged with reviewing films.

Denial of a permit for exhibition was upheld in both the Federal District Court and the Seventh U.S. Circuit of Appeals in Chicago. It was the decision of the latter court that the Supreme Court unanimously reversed.

"Game of Love," distributed by Times Film Corporation, has been rated "C" or condemned by the National Legion of Decency.

In the Alberts case, the court said standards for judging obscenity must also safeguard freedom of speech for material not treating sex by purporting interest.

THE OPINION given by the Chicago Circuit Court about "Game of Love" was that it was "not obscene."

'Rome Eternal' A TV First To Show Pope, Vatican

New York — The exciting, yet reverent, life of Rome and Vatican City, past and present will be presented for the first time on television in "Rome Eternal," a four-part film series on the NBC-TV network, Jan. 5, 12, 19 and 26. One of the first major productions of the 1958 TV season, it will be seen on The Catholic Hour.

(The telecast will be seen in the Rochester area over WROC-TV, Channel 5 from 1:30 to 2 p.m. on the above dates.)

Through "Rome Eternal," the American TV audience will view the first motion pictures of St. Peter's Basilica, Pope Pius XII in audience at St. Peter's and at his summer residence; the genius of Michelangelo; the great art treasures of Rome and the Vatican; the ingenious structures of classical Rome; and the life and activities of modern Rome and Vatican City.

"ROME ETHERAL," co-produced by NBC and the National Council of Catholic Men, was more than a year in the planning. It is the largest single project undertaken by The Catholic Hour in its six years on television.

Pulitzer Prize-winning author Paul Horgan wrote the narration, and original music was composed for the film by Jacques Belasco.
