According to the class president, Joanne Richardson, the dance will be dedicated to the Madonna of the Orient.

MERCY HIGH
"Silver Bells" will be ringing at Our Lady of Mercy High School, tonight, Friday, Dec. 27, when the school's traditional Christmas Formal, with "Silver Bells" as its theme, gets underway in the holiday-bedecked gym from 9:30 until 12:00. Jack LaBou's orchestra will provide the music, according to senior Martha Marsucci, who is the general chairman. Joyce Marcella, president of the Student Council, sponsor of the dance, is the honorary chairman.

Read More, Educator Advises Seminarians

Cincinnati — (NC) — An increasingly valuable asset for parish priests, according to a Catholic educational official. A genuine enthusiasm for literature, he said, will enable priests to minister more effectively to the growing numbers of college graduates who make up a typical parish. Msgr. Carl V. Ryan, Cincinnati archdiocesan superintendent of schools, offered this counsel to 43 graduates of Mount St. Mary Seminary of the West during commencement exercises in Regina High School here. MSGR. RYAN pointed out that

"the habit of reading is the basis of intellectual interest." He urged the seminarians to "develop an interest in reading." The school official predicted that "in another 15 or 20 years, college graduates will be commonplace in any typical Catholic parish." This will mean, he declared, that for the pastor to "secure and retain the confidence of the educated persons in his parish, as one to whom they can go for advice and help, he must command their respect because of his general background of learning."
