Bishop McGuinness Dies; Known Here

Requiem Mass for the Most Rev. Eugene J. McGuinness, third Bishop of Oklahoma City-Tulsa was offered in Our Lady's Cathedral, Oklahoma, Dec. 31. Bishop McGuinness, 68, died Dec. 27, 1957 of a heart attack.

He had served as Bishop of the Oklahoma diocese since Feb. 1, 1948. Bishop McGuinness was raised to the hierarchy when his Holiness Pope Pius XI appointed him second Bishop of Raleigh, N.C. on Oct. 16, 1937.

During the early 1940s Bishop McGuinness came to the Diocese of Rochester and spoke in several of the churches in the interest of his North Carolina missions.

At Notre Dame Retreat House, the men are assigned to individual rooms and facilities are afforded for making the retreat in accordance with rules established. Father Fallon said. Capacity houses have resulted in several of the parish retreats, this year and the report is expected to exceed the 2,797 of last year.

With President Johnson, leaders in the diocesan movement in 1957 included league vice presidents Clarence Keaseling, Patsy Cascano, Charles Groves, Carroll Casey; Emmet Muldoon, treasurer and George Tunney, secretary.

Lourdes, Rome Monsignor Maney To Lead Pilgrimage

Monsignor John E. Maney will lead a pilgrimage to Lourdes and Rome this spring. The pilgrimage will include visits to Europe's famous shrines and scenic spots.

The group will be the official diocesan pilgrimage for the Lourdes centennial observance. Monsignor Maney plans to celebrate Mass at the grotto altar where Our Lady appeared in 1858 to the peasant girl St. Bernadette Soubirous.

This will be the monsignor's fifth trip to Europe, besides his four year course of studies at Rome's North American College prior to his ordination as a priest.

He offered his first Mass as a newly ordained priest at the crypt altar near the tomb of the Prince of the Apostles in the vast St. Peter's Vatican Basilica. He will return this year to offer Mass at the same altar almost nineteen years since his first Mass there in 1939.

MONSIGNOR MANEY will lead the pilgrims to the picturesque shrine city of Assisi, famous as the home of St. Francis and the center of the worldwide Franciscan order. The tour will include sightseeing in Venice, Florence, home of the Renaissance, Siena, and Italian hillside villages.

Almost a full week will be spent in Rome highlighted by an audience with Pope Pius XII.

Monsignor Maney said the European tour will be by private motor coach and all hotel accommodations will be first class. The Atlantic crossing will be made on the Dutch ship Rotterdam, sailing May 7, and return will be on the New Amsterdam arriving at New York June 25.

Also on the itinerary of famous European cities to be visited are Amsterdam, Wiesbaden, Munich, Salzburg, Lucerne in Switzerland, Nice and the French Riviera, Chartres, Paris and Lisieux, home of St. Therese the Little Flower.

AN OPTIONAL extension tour includes a trip to England and Ireland.

Arrangements for the tour are being made by Kalbfleisch Travel Agency, Rochester. Inquiries may be obtained by phone, Baker 5-5440, or by visiting the agency's office at 37 Clinton Ave. South.

Monsignor Maney is chancellor of the Diocese and administrator of Corpus Christi Church.

You mean, there's only cheese for dinner tonight, dear? Mr. Newlywed asked his starry-eyed spouse.

"Yes, precious," replied his wife. "You see, when the chops caught on fire and fell into the tart, I had to use the soup to put the flames out. By that time the string beans had boiled dry and the French-fried potatoes had all turned black."

Evening Mass At 4 Churches

First Friday (today) evening Masses have been scheduled for four Elmira churches. They are:

St. Patrick's, 5:30 p.m.
St. John The Baptist, 5:15 p.m.
Our Lady of Lourdes, 5:30 p.m.

St. Charles Borromeo, 5:15 p.m.

Holy Communion will be distributed at these Masses. The usual fasting regulations are effective.
