READING MADE EASIER—Typical of the remedial reading classes conducted by the Sisters of Mercy on Blossom Road is the scene above. Registration for the reading laboratory and testing clinic, open to pupils of all faiths, is scheduled Jan. 26. The laboratory and clinic are operated year-round under the auspices of the Sisters' teacher-training college, for which a new building is projected this year. Solicitation of pledges toward the new college building begins Jan. 13.

Remedial Reading, Testing, Guidance Services Offered By Nuns' College

Limited registration for remedial reading classes conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, Blossom Road, will be accepted from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 26. It was announced today. It is open to pupils of all faiths from second grade through college.

Also operated in conjunction with the Reading Laboratory is a Testing and Guidance Center, available to pupils of all ages who wish a clinical assessment of their abilities.

The center recently expanded its services to include vocational aptitude analysis for the local branch of the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the State Department of Education.

BOTH THE reading laboratory and the guidance center are part of the services of Catherine McAuley Junior College, a teacher-training college conducted by the Mercy Sisters in the Blossom Road motherhouse.

Expansion of both the college and the reading and guidance clinics is scheduled this year through construction of a $1,250,000 wing addition to the motherhouse.

Pledges toward erection of the proposed building will be sought from friends of the Sisters of Mercy throughout the diocese beginning Jan. 13.

AUXILIARY BISHOP Lawrence B. Casey will address more than 800 fund committeemen at a kickoff rally at 8 p.m. Monday, Jan. 13, in our Lady of Mercy High School Auditorium. Kickoff rallies for other solicitation committees are scheduled as follows: Elmira, Jan. 14; Corning, Jan. 15; Auburn, Jan. 17; Clyde, Jan. 21; Newark, Jan. 22; Hornell, Jan. 24.

The Reading Laboratory has been functioning since 1951 Monday through Saturday throughout the year except during August. Summer courses are given during July at St. Thomas School, Irondequoit, St. Mary's, Corning, and Holy Family, Auburn. Last summer the laboratory and clinic served 71 pupils from 18 parochial schools and 87 pupils from 36 public schools.

Open House Held In Parish School

AMONG 1000 VISITORS to St. Thomas School, Irondequoit Open House is this family of Mr. and Mrs. Nell Duffy and children being greeted by Sister M. Gregory, principal, and Sister Francis Cabrin.
