Jesuits Propose 'Across-Board' U. S. School Aid

Washington, D. C.—Presidents of the nation's 28 Catholic colleges and universities agreed here that if Federal aid to education is deemed necessary, "then that aid should be made available on an across-the-board basis, for all students and for all institutions."

The agreement was released at the conclusion of the Jesuit leaders' annual meeting here at Georgetown University. The Jesuit student body of more than 149,000 in 28 Jesuit colleges accounts for almost one-third of the total enrollment in the nation's more than 225 Catholic colleges and universities.

The Jesuit proposal is a plan which would accept and then disperse Federal government funds to all Catholic institutions on an "across-the-board" basis.

FATHER PAUL C. FORTY, S. J., president of St. Louis' Mary University, told newsmen that in the case of direct Federal grants to institutions of higher education, the institution could make the government's grant more than the state.

IN REFERENCE to the proposal for a direct grant to all states to help defray the cost of education of students...

"When because of state constitutional provisions, across-the-board distribution (to all students and institutions) is precluded, provision should be made for direct grants from the Federal government to individuals or institutions affected."

"Unless such provision is made, the program could not achieve its purpose, because it would bypass a very large pool of individual talent and of educational facilities."

FATHER FORTY, who proposed the direct grant to all states, said that this proposal would avoid the embarrassment of state-to-state aid which would help the Federal government when the state does not wish to fail in its obligation to provide for the education of its citizens.

The proposal is one of the 215 recommendations of the National Council of Catholic Bishops, which are being distributed to all bishops.

The council also recommended that the Federal Government should provide for the education of students in the States which have no such provision.

Birthday Cake

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—(C)—St. Francis Church here, like most Catholic churches, had a Christmas crèche. On Christmas day, Father Luke Poleson, O. F. M., the pastor found that a gift had been left at the crib.

A little white cake, decorated with bright blue and pink icing, was placed in front of the Nativity scene. It was inscribed, "Happy Birthday Baby Jesus."

Father Poleson recalled that leaving food at churches was a custom of the Mexican people.

Chinese Teachers In 'Godless' Role

HONG KONG — (RNS) — The Peiping Review reported that teachers in Communist China "from now on will be responsible for making sure that their pupils are brought up as materialists."

Protestants Score Jesuit Proposal

Washington, D. C.—Protestant leaders here scored the Jesuit proposal for direct Federal grants to all Catholic institutions.

The proposal, which would accept and then disperse Federal government funds to all Catholic institutions on an "across-the-board" basis, was met with opposition.

TWINS VISIT BISHOP KEARNEY — Pretty, three-year-old twins, Regina Marie Kluss and Marie Regina Kluss received a hearty welcome from Bishop Kearney when they attended his New Year reception for the ladies last Sunday. Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kluss of Elmwood Road, the twins were baptized by St. Mary's Hospital three years ago by the Bishop who suggested their names in honor of the Marian Year. Laymen Increase Retreat Attendance

Growing popularity of the spiritual retreat movement among Catholic men of the Rochester Diocese is evidenced in the report that, during the past year, 3,409 of them attended the Notre Dame Retreat House.

This record attendance for retreats was announced Tuesday evening as members of the Laymen's Retreat League launched their 1958 program at evening Masses celebrated in three parishes of the Rochester Diocese.

HIS EXCELLENCY, Bishop Kearney, saying the Mass in Rochester's St. Joseph's Church, lauded the retreat league's record report of 1957.

The sanctuary lamp at Notre Dame Retreat House "beckons laymen to a weekend retreat as the Star of Bethlehem summoned the Magi to the new born Saviour," he said.

FATHER THOMAS J. FEENEY, C.S.R., pastor of the Elmira area, in Rochester, told Elmira area men at the retreat league Mass in St. Patrick's Church there that the record attendance of 3,409 represented an increase of 612 over the previous year.

Also attending a Mass last evening were A. J. Adams, area retreat leader, and Father William J. Ryan, C.S.R., of the Notre Dame Retreat House staff who said the spiritual value of making a retreat.

THE ELMIRA Mass was celebrated by Rev. Msgr. William J. Ryan, V.F. pastor of St. Patrick's Church. Over 100 men attended the Mass in that church.

IN AUBURN, 410 men assisted at the Mass celebrated by Father Jamison in St. Alphonsus Church.

The Dominican Monastery of the Perpetual Rosary in Elmira has received a bequest of $75,000 from the estate of the late Mrs. Daniel H. McCarthage of Buffalo.

The announcement was made in behalf of the Dominican nuns, who conduct the Monastery on West Church Street in Elmira, by Monsignor Gerald C. Lambert, pastor of St. Monica's Church, Rochester, who founded the institution in 1944.

THE BEQUEST will be used, it was explained, to reduce the Monastery's indebtedness and make it possible to complete the Community's plans for a new chapel for the nuns.

Her residuary estate is to be divided among three other institutions besides the Elmira Monastery: the Society of the Holy Child, the Society of the Holy Child, the Society of the Holy Child.
