

Priory Status Granted Mt. Saviour Monastery

Status of Mount Saviour Monastery, Elmira, was raised to that of a Conventual Priory and the Very Rev. Damasus Winzen was appointed first Conventual Prior, according to word from Rome.

The decision marking the end of the first or "foundation" stage of the Benedictine monastery, was made by the Sacred Congregation of Religious, Vatican office handling matters pertaining to religious orders.

Mount Saviour becomes an independent member of the Confederation of Benedictine Abbeys throughout the world.

THIS OPENS the way for the next step, that of being raised to an abbey, in the monastery's development. This will take place when the monastery has met the necessary requirements consisting of a minimum number of 12 solemnly professed monks and the buildings which will enable the community to live the monastic life in full accordance with St. Benedict's Rule.

Necessary funds are expected through a campaign now being formulated to permit resumption of building of the monastic enclosure as originally planned, it was announced at Mount Saviour.

Since completing the first stage in the building plans in 1952, the Chapel of Our Lady, Queen of Peace, it was necessary to attend to the essential living requirements and postpone any further development in the original plans.

Mt. Saviour was founded in the spring of 1951, in the hills between Elmira and Corning. Father Damasus Winzen, the Prior, was the monastery founder and has been the temporary superior up to now.

His appointment as a Conventual Prior makes him permanent superior of the monastery and gives him the privilege of attending the congress of Abbots held in Rome every six years.

Requiem Offered For Mrs. McCullen

Requiem High Mass was offered for Anna C. McCullen, wife of Patrick McCullen of St. Pius X Church following services at D. Bernard O'Brien Funeral Home on Jan. 2. The Rev. Donald Murphy was celebrant.

In the sanctuary were Monsignor Joseph Sullivan, the Rev. John Connolly and the Rev. Albert Gelger. Mrs. McCullen, who died Dec. 30, 1957, was an old parishioner of St. Feehan Church (now St. Pius X).

Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, Thomas P., two daughters, Miss Mary McCullen and Mrs. James Connolly; five grandsons and three granddaughters.

Father Murphy officiated at the committal in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Survivors were Vincent White, William White, Edward Dakin, Joseph Powers, John Caulfield and William Levis.

FOUR LITHUANIAN girls dressed in their national costume are pictured as they pay tribute to newly-consecrated Bishop Howard J. Carroll, of Altoona-Johnstown, Pa. The girls are refugees who were aided by Bishop Carroll and his staff when he was General Secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Conference. The girls represent the United Lithuanian Relief Association. They are from left, Ruta Krutickas, Asta Vitenas, Jurate Mazelka, and Dante Valciulaitis. (NC Photos)

Consecration Rites Held For Bishop Carroll

Rochester area relatives and friends attended the consecration in Washington of the Most Rev. Howard J. Carroll, newly named Bishop of Altoona-Johnstown, Pa.

Bishop Carroll will be installed Jan. 23 at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament in Altoona.

Two cardinals, eight archbishops, and 48 bishops attended the rites, together with more than 1,000 members of the laity including members of Congress and high government officials.

Archbishop Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, was consecrator. Bishop John F. Dearden of Pittsburgh and his Auxiliary, Bishop Coleman F. Carroll served as co-consecrators.

The two Bishops Carroll are the only brother-members of the United States hierarchy.

THE NEW BISHOP, 55, is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Carroll, residents here in the early 1900's. The father was an accountant for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad until he moved to Pittsburgh.

At the ceremonies in St. Matthew Cathedral, Washington he sides his brother, Auxiliary Bishop Coleman F. Carroll, were several nieces and nephews.

Three daughters of the late Thomas E. Carroll, William's brother attended. They are Aloise, Dorothea and Kathleen Carroll of 84 Latimore Road.

Sister Paul Francis, a teacher at Our Lady of Good Counsel School, another first cousin witnessed the consecration. She was accompanied by Mother Marie Concepta, Good Counsel School, principal.

Friends present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Meagher of 430 Rugby Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Rd., Chill address.

Tea Parties
Aid Converts
Nagahama, Japan - (NC) - The Japanese make a ceremony of drinking tea and apparently have an endless appetite for it.
One Maryknoll missioner here, Father J. Gregor, Cilmartin, of Waterbury, Conn., decided to capitalize on this fact.
He felt that some way had to be found to overcome the natural bashfulness and reticence of the Japanese converts to the Church who attended his mission. Too often, he thought, the new Catholics would come to attend Mass, and leave immediately without getting to know one another and so become closely united in the Church.
Now Father Gilmartin has a special room at the mission where the people can sit and chat after Mass and services, drinking tea.
The idea is working out quite well, Father Gilmartin reports.
