Birthday Cake Left In Crib

Sacramento, Calif. — (NC) — Someone known only to God acted on the literal meaning of Christmas at St. Francis' Church, here, by leaving a birthday cake at the crib on Christmas Day. The little cake, held by Father Luke Powleson, O.F.M., pastor, is frosted in white and decorated in bright blue and pink. On top it reads, "Happy Birthday Baby Jesus." Leaving food anonymously is an old Mexican custom, Father Powleson said.

Nun's Paper-Saving Builds Fatima Shrine

Parkersburg, W. Va. — (NC) — Through a 12-year paper saving campaign a 77-year-old Sister of St. Joseph made possible the beautiful grotto of Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima which decorates the front yard of St. Joseph's Hospital here.

Sister Mary Casimir during 12 years salvaged all the old newspapers and magazines which she could find around the hospital and sold them. As a result she accumulated more than $1,200, enough to purchase the six-figure shrine for the grotto. The figures include The Blessed Mother and the three Portuguese children to whom she appeared at Fatima, Portugal, in 1917 while they were tending sheep.

Thoughts Of A Shut-In
As I lie here and ponder, in wonder and doubt,
I think of the work the Lord wants me about.
Tell me the answer, Lord, show me the light,
As I lie here in darkness and fret through the night,
Tell me, oh Lord, the work I must do,
To set my feet on the pathway to You.
