Catholic Sports Writers Honored
New York (NC) Two nationally-known sports writers will be the recipients of this year's Catholic Institute of the Press Award.

The award, which is given "to individuals who have most exemplified Catholic ideals in the communications field," will be presented in the two men at the institute's annual Communion breakfast Feb. 2 at the Hotel Roosevelt.

The Catholic Institute of the Press is a local group of Catholic laymen employed in the mass communications field.

Teen Choir Hailed By RPD Employees

Blessed Sacrament Teen Choir so pleased Rochester Products second shift employees by singing Christmas carols in the plant cafeteria, Dec. 23 that the management and employees are seeking the choir's return next Christmas.

The choir was directed by Miss Mary Rame and accompanied at the piano by Monica Wels. Soloists were Carol Pass and Patricia Emmons.

The Blessed Sacrament teens choir made their initial radio broadcast over station WHEC on Saturday, Dec. 21 and through this were invited to sing at Rochester Products Division.

After the reception, the sodalists and their parents were feted at a tea in the De Sales High School gymnasium.

The new Sodality members were presented to the Rev. John A. Morgan, Sodality moderator, by Prefect Michael Donahue. Father Morgan addressed the students.

The name for the paper, "The Blazon," was chosen after long consideration. As a verb, "blazon" means to publish far and wide. Officials of the paper decided to use it as an attempt to make known the varied activities of the students of De Sales.
