

Daily Paper Warns On POAU 'Hate'

Manchester, N. H. — (NC) The Union-Leader, New Hampshire's largest daily newspaper, has advised readers "to be aware of helping Protestants and other Americans United for Separation of Church and State spread its doctrine of hate."

The newspaper commented editorially on the organization, saying that POAU "falsely betrays its real motives by attacking Catholic beliefs on education, marriage, adultery, birth control, etc., and winds up with the observation that American institutions and American loyalties are not learned in Catholic schools."

Visual Mass Explanation Scheduled At Holy Family

Actions and prayers used in the Mass will be explained by visual aid on Monday, Jan. 20 in Holy Family Parish, Rochester. "A Commentary on the Mass" to which all are invited will begin at 7:15 p.m. in the school auditorium. Lorenzo means of explanation has proved to be successful in learning the true meaning of the Mass. He invites all to attend. Non-Catholics as well as Catholics.

"The Commentary on the Mass" is part of the regular Inquiry Course conducted in the parish and ceremonies of a Mass. At the same time the specific actions of the "celebrant" will be explained by means of a tape recorder.

This class is held every Monday at 7:15 p.m. in the Pine Room and lasts for one hour. Any person interested is asked to call the Rev. George J. Schmitt, pastor, said that this visual
