CARMEN BASILIO, voted professional Athlete of the Year and Hickok Belt recipient, Monday at the Press-Exado Polo Dinner gives Aquinas Institute student Tom Camilliani a few points in preparation for coming Aquinas Mission Bouts, date to be announced.

AQUINAS BOYS JUBILANT Carmen Basilio Named Top Athlete Of Year

The boys of Aquinas Institute found a ray of sunshine in the gloom of their three hour long Regents examinations this week when they heard that Carmen Basilio won the professional athlete of the year award and the coveted $10,000 S. Ray Hickok belt at the annual Polo-fund dinner at the Manager Hotel in Rochester.

Carmen is an honorary alumnus of Aquinas and a favorite of the boys. Even when Basilio lost to Johnny Saxton in 1957 the students sent a scroll assuring Carmen that he was still their champ.

BASILIO'S connection with Aquinas goes back a number of years to when he first heard about Aquinas Mission bouts. During his visits to the school he always took time out to encourage the young fighters and show them a few of his deadly punches. On Feb. 4, 1956, just prior to the Saxton fight, Basilio refereed the last two fights of the Aquinas Mission Bouts before over 6,000 fans at the Rochester War Memorial. On that occasion Harold Coleman presented Basilio with the Aquinas "Catholic Fighter of the Year" award.

In 1957 Basilio was again present at the War Memorial for the Mission Bouts and at that time was presented with a portrait of himself.

Rev. Cyril Carter, C.S.B., director of athletics at Aquinas, Rev.
