Painted Post Nurse To Receive Cap

Painted Post, N. Y.—Miss Mary A. Deane, nurse at the Painted Post Hospital, will receive her nursing cap from the Painted Post Hospital on Saturday, Feb. 1, at 10 a.m.

The cap is a symbol of the nursing profession and is a mark of honor. Miss Deane has been employed at the hospital for 15 years.

Mission Bell-Ringer 60 Years

Wilmington, Del. — (NC) — Miss Rosa Lenou of New Castle, Del., visits here with Bishop Filion J. Sheen, Auxiliary of New York, and National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, Miss Lenou has been ringing bells in her parish for 60 years on behalf of the Mission Society headed by the Bishop, setting a record as the Society's promoter with the longest continuous service in the country. Delaware ranks first in per capita contributions to the Society.

Nursing School Activities

Another milestone was reached by seniors at St. Joseph's Hospital, School of Nursing. The desired yearbook fund was attained. To celebrate the Class enjoyed a spaghetti supper in the Cafeteria.

The Student Government Association met on Wednesday evening, Jan. 22. Following the meeting, Sister Marie Michael showed a film on disaster nursing. Sister explained the part the students would play in the hospital in the event of natural or wartime disaster.

The Lourdes Club of Our Lady of Lourdes Church has invited student nurses to join their group.

The freshmen are having a series of lectures in moral guidance. Each Sunday evening for a period of three weeks. Rev. Joseph M. Egan of St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, discusses the subject with them.

The freshmen are making some final preparations for their course in the Fall. Sister and Third Nursing School of the class will be in the hospital for their final practical training.
