Area College Students Schedule Meeting, Dance

D'Youville College will play host to the Lake Erie Region of the National Federation of Catholic College Students at a council meeting, Sunday Feb. 9, at 1:30 p.m.

The participating institutions are: St. Bonventure University, Niagara University, Canisius College, Gannon College, Rosary Hill College, Mercyhurst College, Nazareth College, and D'Youville College.

Agenda for the meeting includes reports of Foreign Student life on the various campuses, a report on plans for the regional seminar to be held in the spring, and policy resolutions given by the chairmen of the regional commissions.

DANCE SCHEDULED

Lake Erie Region will sponsor a dance Feb. 8, from 10:00 to 1:00 a.m. at Memorial Auditorium in Buffalo. The dance will follow a regular Saturday night basketball double-header in which St. Bonaventure University will meet LaSalle and Canisius will play Manhattan.

General Chairman is Patrick T. Jesaitis of St. Bonaventure. Tickets and arrangements are being handled by Carmen F. Gullo of Canisius, and publicity is under the direction of Judy A. Walker of Rosary Hill.

The colleges and universities which have been invited are: St. Bonaventure, Niagara, Canisius, D'Youville, Rosary Hill, Nazareth, Gannon, and Mercyhurst.

Cenacle Retreat Ash Wednesday

An Ash Wednesday Retreat for Catholic women will be inaugurated at the Convent of Our Lady of the Cenacle, 093 East Ave, opening with 9:15 a.m. Mass, the Sisters announced today.

The Retreat on Feb. 19 and 20 will be conducted by the Rev. Lawrence B. Hill, S.J., of Inisfada House of Studies, Manhasset, L.I.

'Open House' Set At St. Andrew's

Parents of students attending St. Andrew's Seminary are invited to attend "open-house" at the Buffalo Rd. school this Sunday, Feb. 9.

Father Richard Quinn, rector, said parents will have an opportunity to meet professors and discuss the student's scholastic progress at the seminary.

The open house will be held 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. and 8 to 9 p.m. and conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the seminary chapel.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

IF YOUR MARRIAGE IS TROUBLED never go to a psychiatrist who is living with a second wife; if you are in pain never expect true consolation from one who has not suffered; if you want aid for the poor and the afflicted expect the most aid from those who know the meaning of poverty and tears. As beggars for the Holy Father and his Missions we know this to be true, as this letter from a child of seven bears witness:

Dear Bishop Sheen:

Mother went to the hospital for the second time in two weeks. Daddy does not come home very often. Once when he did, he kicked Mommy out of the house and she had to go to the hospital. Daddy is not kind but bitter, and he treats her like dirt and makes her feel bad. She cries and my brother and sister cry too. Mommy always tells us to be kind and to love him, to pray for him and never blame him, that God will keep him from sin and wickedness and save his soul. Will you please pray for us? I am sending you twenty five cents from myself and three cents from my sister. Give it to the Holy Father because we know that he gives the money to the missionaries. God bless you and keep you. Frances.

IF A WORD FROM OUR LORD on the Cross was worth so much because spoken out of the fullness of love which was total surrender, then this twenty eight cents from these two children is worth much more because given in the midst of tears and a broken heart. Now you know what we mean when we ask you to sacrifice for the Holy Father — which you always do when you sacrifice for his Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

GOD LOVE YOU' to Mrs. D.M.W. for $5 "Part of this was to be saved for my china. However, your people need clothes, food etc. more than I need dishes." . . . to C.B. for $1 "I was going to get a pair of tennis shoes but I think its better to give than to receive —I am eleven years old." . . . to W.E.J. for $5 "From an old age pension benefit and from the benefit of the aged in the missions under your care." . . . to Mrs. T.L.G. "Just had the desire to help a little—so here's $1."

When you pray the WORLDMISSION ROSARY with its multicolored beads, each decade representing a different continent, you remember all of the poor of the world for whom we care through our 135,000 unsalaried workers. Your sacrifice offering of $2 for the rosary helps us to help the missionaries who help the poor. Send your request for the WORLDMISSION ROSARY to Society for the Propagation of the Faith 366 Fifth Avenue New York 1, N.Y. or to your own Diocesan Director.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 1x, N.Y. or your Diocesan Director, Rev. Geo. S. Wood 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

200 Attend Livingston Deanery Luncheon Meeting

Mt. Morris — More than 200 members and guests attended the First Saturday luncheon of the Livingston Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women held at the Avon Inn, Avon, Feb. 1.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. William Ryan, president introduced Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Ball, pastor of St. Rose Church, Lima, who was the principal speaker. Father Ball spoke on Catholic Home Education.

The Rev. Edward Tolster, assistant pastor of St. Agnes Church, Avon; the Rev. E. Leo McMannus of Rochester, moderator of the Rochester Deanery of the N.C.C.W. and Msgr. Theodore Strohmeyer of Rochester, president of the Rochester Deanery of the N.C.C.W., also attended.

Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell of Livonia Center, moderator of the Livingston Deanery spoke on the meaning of the First Saturday devotion.

Miss Marion McLaughlin of Avon was chairman of the committee that made the arrangements of the luncheon. She is also spiritual development chairman of the Livingston unit of the N.C.C.W.

A number of priests from the county also attended.

Wayne Deanery Holds Luncheon

Wayne Deanery, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, had 132 women present for the first Saturday Luncheon of the 1958 season held at Wolcott Hotel. Nine priests were at the speaker's table. The Rev. John Tressy, of Wolcott, was host. Guest speaker was The Rev. Gerard Amann of St. Michael's, in Lyons. Seated with the deanery moderator, The Rev. James O'Connell of Ontario, were the Reverend Fathers Paul Cuddy, Clyde; Henry Adamski, Clyde; James Lane, of Marion; B. Clark Hanna of Macedon; William Lammers, Sodus; and William Gaynor, Red Creek.

Father Amann's subject was "The Shrine of the Pyrenees." His theme was the Virgin's message of Lourdes.

Father Amann gave vivid detail to each Visitation; but emphasized that of the 18 apparitions, the 16th is most important, because, in it the Virgin proclaimed: "I Am The Immaculate Conception."

Pope Designates Fr. Muckle Church As Lourdes Shrine

Toronto, Ont. — (RNS — Pope Pius XII has approved the designation of Our Lady of Lourdes church here as a local shrine of prayer during the Lourdes Marian year, Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, announced.

Cardinal McGuigan said the Pontiff had granted a plenary indulgence to every person who visits the shrine on any or all Feasts of the Virgin Mary during the year under the usual conditions. The same indulgence is granted to all groups of eight or more who visit the shrine under the same conditions on any day.

The Rev. W. D. Muckle, pastor of Toronto's "Little Lourdes" who also is celebrating his 40th anniversary of ordination, expects thousands of pilgrims from all over the archdiocese and outside it.

Father Muckle has two brothers who are priests in the Diocese of Rochester, the Rev. John F. Muckle, pastor emeritus of St. Thomas Church, and the Rev. Charles E. Muckle, pastor of St. Agnes Church, Avon and another brother, the Rev. Joseph Muckle, C.S.B. in Toronto. A sister, Sister Mary Charles is a member of the Rochester diocese Sisters of Mercy.
