Notre Dame High Notes

By TONETTE TOTA and PATRICK SAXE

Notre Dame High School, Elmira has become a showcase of Art and Literature, in the past week. Besides a special Mass to celebrate the Centennial of Our Lady of Lourdes, exhibits can be found throughout the school. Eve Motte drew a picture of the Blessed Virgin and a poster was arranged by Sister Jeanne and the Art class. Pictures of modern Lourdes are displayed in the French room. Pat Saxe drew a map of France.

The library is not to be surpassed in this showcase. The patriotic exhibit was done by Mary Lou Raplee and Sharon O'Meara. Lorraine Knuth, Jacquelin Hall and Mary Lou Morse teamed up to do the bulletin boards for Catholic Book Week, Feb. 16 to 23. The theme, "Christian Reading for Christian Living," is an incentive to become acquainted with Catholic books.

Loretta Sheehe and Margaret Farmer arranged a Bible exhibit to advertise the world's best seller. This exhibit, incidentally, is a plug for the "Know Your Bible" contest which ends Feb. 20. A beautiful new Bible will be given as first award and runners-up will receive other Biblical prizes.

* * *

VARDENS WILL again invade Notre Dame on Feb. 17. They plan to take final pictures for the year book. Their main targets are the Senior play and the Junior class.

* * *

AFTER RACKING their brains and tuning their voices, the Latin III class has come up with a few prominent citizens. Meet Notre Dames Cicero, alias James Cunningham, who earned that title according to the entire class of Senatorial judges. James' topic was, "Personal Danger and Public Peril." Lewis Brown was awarded second place and Thomas McDonald obtained third place. The same judges proclaimed Margarite Cloke as, "Miss Cicero of 1958." She spoke about, "Patience Has a Limit." Second place went to Ellen McWilliams. Third place to Mary Clair Hager.

State Leader Commends KC Record In Ithaca

Ithaca — Members of Ithaca Council 277, Knights of Columbus, Saturday evening at the 60th Anniversary banquet held at the Ithaca Hotel were congratulated by Emmett Burke of Yonkers, State Deputy, for their contributions to the community and church since the organization of the council in 1897.

Burke also advised "do not rest on your laurels, but continue to advance so that further congratulations can be received honorably at the next big anniversary celebration."

He said "the most important problem now facing the 109,000 members of the Knights of Columbus in New York State is the fight to insist on only 'decent literature' being sold at our newsstands. No other problem is so great as the unfit printed matter now available for our children to read."

He also discussed the scholadship program sponsored by the Knights of Columbus in New York State bringing out the fact that the students who qualified for the $30,000 in grants last year also qualified for or received other funds of over $65,000 bringing the merits of the program to nearly $100,000, the largest of any such contribution to high school graduates by any fraternal organization.

Monsignor William J. Byrne, V.F., mentioned the many things the Council and its members have contributed to the Immaculate Conception Parish during the past 30 years he has been pastor.

THOMAS SOLAN, financial secretary and a member for 45 years acted as Historian and traced the activities of the local Council during the past 60 years.

Charles Christian, State Building Inspector, and a member of the local council acted as Toastmaster. Entertainment was by the Sawyer Boys.

Other guests included: Edward Klaus, district deputy from Elmira; Walter Walsh, State Chairman of Press and Publicity, Edward E. Wyka, secretary to Mr. Burke, William Gray, City Clerk of Yonkers, R. W. Canaorka and Sy Barker all of Yonkers. Mr. Barker is Past Grand Knight of the LaRabida Council 166 of Yonkers.

The anniversary celebration was completed with a dance at the Council Home at 114 So. Albany Street.

COMMITTEE members, who were responsible for the success of this 60th Anniversary Program included: Reception, James L. Otis, chairman, Ronald Hogan, John E. Barrett, William Seitz, Ernest Jackson, Joseph Minoque, Thomas Solan and Peter Piech; Banquet, Edward Slaght, chairman, Lawrence Flynn, Oliver Strong; Social Hour, John Herson, chairman, Joseph Conway and Jerry Kirby; Program, Raymond Nadge, chairman, Peter Piech, James L. Otis and George Kleeman; Entertainment, Joseph Slattery, chairman, Edward Walsh, J. Ray Bedell and D.
