Cosentino Couple Mark 25 Years Wed

Geneva — Mrs. Richard Narozzi entertained at a family dinner and surprise reception Tuesday, Jan. 28, in honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cosentino, 18 N. Genesee St. The event was held at the Cosentino home.

Mr. and Mrs. Cosentino were married 25 years ago by the Rev. George T. McCall in St. Mary's Church, Waterloo. They have one daughter, Mrs. Narozzi, and two grandchildren, Cynthia Ann and Deborah Narozzi.

On Tuesday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Cosentino and the family attended an anniversary Mass celebrated in the chapel of Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary, Lockhard Rd.

A buffet lunch was served at the reception in the Cosentino home Tuesday. Silver was used in the decorative scheme. Central feature was an anniversary cake ornamented in silver and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Cosentino received a number of gifts of silver and other anniversary gifts.

They said he would probably say his first Mass at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome and later be received in audience by Pope Pius XII.

MR. BORMANN is now completing his studies at the seminary of the Missionary Fathers of the Sacred Heart in Vienna.

He was a member of a Nazi Youth unit at the time of the German defeat and was sent to the Austrian Tyrol where he was befriended by a Catholic farmer named Klaus Hofenwarer. He returned sometime later to Germany, but in 1947 was again in the Tyrol where he was received into the Catholic Church.

THE YOUNG Bormann shortly afterwards entered one of the Austrian provincial seminaries and in 1949 came to Vienna to finish his studies at the Sacred Heart Seminary. In 1950 he went on a Holy Year pilgrimage to Rome and attended one of the mass audiences given by the Pope.

The elder Bormann is generally believed to have died in May, 1945, but there has never been any absolute proof of his death.
