Annual HN Bowling Tournament Listed

The 23rd annual Holy Name five man handicap bowling tournament will be held at Olympic Bowl, 1300 Scottsville Rd., from Saturday, April 19 through Sunday, May 4. The tournament, sanctioned by the American Bowling Congress and under the auspices of the Catholic Men's Bowling Association, is expected to draw a record 1,200 teams this year.

The tournament fee is $18 per team of which $10.10 will be used for prizes. All Catholics who are members of the American Bowling Congress may participate. The highest average in any league last year will be used with the scratch average being 950 pins. Handicap is based on 70 per cent of the difference between the team average and that figure.

NO TEAM over the 950 average may enter. Entrants may bowl only once. Entries will be accepted until March 26. Reserve entries are due by March 23. Entry blanks are now available at all Rochester bowling halls. Entries and inquiries may be sent to Fred Enders, P.O. Box 1935, Rochester, N.Y. HO 3103-7-3327.

Louridan Club Lenten Speakers

Members of Louridan Club met in Our Lady of Lourdes Parish hall, Elmira last Monday evening to hear a talk given by Rev. Leo G. Schwab on "Marriage and the Home."

The group will meet again on March 10 and continue sessions every other week. Priests from the area will give talks during the Lenten season.

Last year 1,038 teams were entered with $10,313.50 awarded in 398 prizes. St. Joseph Holy Name was the tournament winner.

Officers of the Catholic Men's Bowling Association are Joseph P. Capuano, president, Kenneth Butler and Joseph Gagner, vice presidents; Robert Cortes, treasurer, and Enders, secretary.

Nursing School Activities

Freshmen of St. Joseph Hospital School of Nursing, Elmira celebrated the January and February birthdays with a party Monday night in the cafeteria. Honored guests were: Mary Aman, Barbara Kozlomba, Mary Kay Flynn, Anita Allegretti, Jeanne Bury, Mary Ann Capozzi, Phyllis Gorsky and Virginia Schosger.

In spite of the inclement weather the pancake supper Tuesday night was a success.

Ash Wednesday was observed with evening devotions in the Little Flower Chapel. The rosary was recited and a sermon on the meaning of Lent was given by the Rev. Philip E. McEgan, Chaplain. Services were closed with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament with Father McEgan as celebrant.

Following services in the chapel, the student government meeting was held in the Social Room. Nominees for Student Nurse of New York State were announced. They are: Patricia Marsh, Ruth Peake, Marlene Baran, Patricia Murphy and Carol Whitford. One of these five will be chosen to represent St. Joseph's in the contest.

Grace Samentink, president, and Mary Congdon, vice president of the Student Government Association have left for their affiliation at Utica State Hospital. Replacing them to conduct the meetings will be Rosemarie Antuzzi, who will be returning from Utica.

The juniors held a spaghetti supper Thursday night as they prepared to leave on their affiliation this weekend. Sister Anne Maurice and Sister Marie Michael were guests at the supper.

Scout Awards Given At Family Supper

Approximately 50 people attended the first family supper of the newly organized Boy Scout Troop of St. Cecilia's in the church hall recently.

Scoutmaster John J. Karski and assistant Scoutmaster John Bellinger presented second class awards to Patrick Collins, James Clune, Thomas Karski, John Stein and Jerry McCarthy.

Tenderfoot pins went to John Farley, Gary Wholeben, Michael Johnson, Anthony Cicotta, Michael Bernas, Donald Johnson, Thomas Murray, Thomas Taylor and Leonard Haines.

An American Flag was presented by Atty. Joseph B. Hayes on behalf of the Harry B. Bentley American Legion Post to James Clune. The troop charter was presented by Peter Chalk to Leonard J. Murray.

The Rev. Thomas Manley, church pastor, and James E. Waters, chairman of Kanawoola District Organization and Extension Committee of the Boy Scouts, spoke. Daniel Collins was toastmaster. Mrs. Charles McCarthy was in charge of the supper. Theodore Taylor played Taps.

Notre Dame High Notes

By TONETTE TOTA and PATRICK SANE
Valedictorian Julia Loughlin and Salutatorian Daniel Laux head the list of honor students at Notre Dame High School, Elmira. First honors in the Class of '38 go to Nancy Quinney, John McInerney, Ann Sheehy, Gerald O'Connor, Mary Claire Hager, Jerome Coffey and Patricia Tamara. All of these students have been named members of the National Honor Society.

Michael Barnoski, Robert Johnson, Terrence O'Herron, Patricia Watts, Sharon Esdale, Linda Seifried, Patricia Fusaro, John Lutes, Brian O'Meara, Stanley Klinzok, Patrick Sane and Mary Nugent earned second honors.

Elected new officers for Notre Dame's Nocturnal Adoration Society are Captain Jerold Meeker and Leader Lewis Brown, replacing Lawrence Joshebo and Patrick Sane. The new leaders expressed the hope for a larger and more fervent membership in the coming year.

On March 1st 37 jugglers of Notre Dame will take an active part in the drama festival to be held at St. Agnes High School. Members of the senior play cast will present a portion of Mrs. McThing for the drama enthusiasts assembled there.

Tuesday was set aside to pay tribute to Kay Frost, a freshman who died in an automobile accident last summer. Prayers and sacrifices were offered for the repose of her soul. Under the auspices of the student council and the chairmanship of Yvonne LaBrecque, a thurible for use at Benediction will be purchased from the voluntary offerings of the students.

The winners of the "Know Your Bible" contest held during Bible Week, reaped the benefits of their labors Monday. Dawn Minch, a freshman, proved her knowledge of the Bible by taking first prize in the contest. Second prize awards went to Edwina Sullivan, Alice McLaughlin, Melva Nagle, Timothy Noonan, Anne Lisi, Donna Hughes and Patrick Sane.

Ithacans Plan Lenten Discussion Clubs

Ithaca — Mathias Weiden, chairman of the committee on discussion clubs for the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine in Ithaca, has announced plans for the Lenten Discussion Clubs which began in Ithaca last week.

Topic for the current Lenten season is "Our Christian Vocation" which is Book Number four in a series entitled "This We Believe" written by Rev. Leo J. Trese. The Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Matrimony and Holy Orders are included in the subject for discussion.

On Monday at the parochial school at 7:30 p.m., a group will meet weekly under the leadership of Rev. William Thomas. Edward Zimmer is conducting a study group sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Auxiliary for its members on Tuesdays at 8 p.m. in the Knights home, for members of the Knights, their wives and interested friends.

On Wednesday evenings following evening Mass in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. Otto Vogt will have charge of a group in parish hall. Anyone interested is welcome to attend any of these group meetings.

A NUMBER of parishioners are planning study groups one evening a week in their homes. Among those to have home meetings are

St. Patrick's Women Hold Day Of Recollection

By HELEN A. BROSINAN

Owego — "The most precious gift you have is your Catholic Faith. You may count as gifts of this nature, your family, your relatives, and your health. Truly they are wonderful gifts given by God. But above all this is the gift of your Catholic faith."

These were the opening words of the Rev. Bruce A. Ammering, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Waterloo, at the Day of Recollection for the Women of St. Patrick's parish on Feb. 25. The program was sponsored by the Rosary and Altar Society and the Rev. Michael L. Reagan, moderator. Services opened with recitation of the Rosary by Father Reagan, and Father Ammering, former assistant pastor of St. Patrick's, conducted the remaining services.

Novena Conducted
Owego — The Rev. Julius Sullivan, a Capuchin priest, stationed at Interlaken, is conducting a solemn novena to the Miraculous Medal, this week. The Novena Cerebral Palsy Association, will close March 3. Services are held each day at 7:45 p.m. and Masses are said each morning at 6 a.m. and 7:45 a.m.
