Auburn Events

Annual Triduum At Mt. Carmel High

Auburn — Mt. Carmel High School has scheduled its first annual Vocation Triduum for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 3, 4, and 5 at the school. The Carmelite Fathers and the Sisters of St. Joseph who teach in the school, together with the diocesan clergy, are cooperating in the affair.

All the religious in the diocese have been asked to set up exhibits portraying their work in the Diocese and elsewhere. All the religious in the country have been asked to submit literature for distribution and posters for display.

THE SPIRITUAL program will call for Mass and Holy Communion for the student body at 11 a.m. for the three days. Special prayers before and after each class, and perpetual adoration before the Blessed Sacrament for the three days will all be directed toward the increase of religious and priestly vocations.

Each day there will be a full 1 1/2 hour assembly program to acquaint the students with the need for and the nature of priestly vocations. In the assembly on Tuesday, March 4, there will be a panel discussion on vocation.

Rev. C. Richard Nangle, assistant pastor of Holy Family Church, Auburn, will be the moderator of the panel which will include Albert Delmonte, college sophomore of St. Andrew's Seminary; David Callan, high school senior of St. Andrew's, both of Auburn; Richard Trapp, high school senior of St. John's Atonement Seminary, Montour Falls; and Frater Methodius Pavlik, O. C. S. M., a second year philosophy student.

On March 6 the students of Mt. Carmel will play host to the seventh and eighth grade students of Auburn Catholic schools. A special program will be presented for them in the school auditorium following which there will be a guided tour of the exhibits.

Auburn — The Rosary and Sacred Heart Society of Holy Family Church and the Mothers Club of Holy Family Church will have a Day of Recollection on Sunday, in the Holy Family auditorium from 11 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. The exercises are open to women of the parish and any other interested woman.

The Rev. C. Richard Nangle, assistant pastor, will be retreat master.

Reservations should be made in advance of the day of retreat. Promoters of the Rosary and Sacred Heart Society have been requested to make their final reservation reports to Mrs. Harold C. Surber and home room mothers are to report to Mrs. Edward T. Boyle.

Auburn — Auburn Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus will have a Communion Breakfast on Sunday, at the Auburn Inn, following group attendance at the 7:30 a.m. Mass at St. Mary's Church. Msgr. James D. Cuffney of St. Bernard's Seminary and Faithful Fear of Rochester, Fourth Degree Assembly, will be the speaker. Joseph P. Cuddy will be toastmaster.

Members of the committee are Msgr. William E. Cowen, S.T.D., pastor of St. Mary's; Rev. Edward Kurdzziel, O.F.M. Conv., assistant pastor of St. Hyacinth's; Frederick L. Kosow, Frederick J. Welch, co-chairmen. Dr. D. D. Althouse, William D. Gandy, Raymond W. Glancy, Gerald F. Mullen, Joseph J. Hickey, Leonard Greene, J. Harold Wright, Francis J. Gormley, T. Joseph Coffey, George B. Shamon and Joseph P. Cuddy.

ON MARCH 14, 15, and 16, the C.Y.O. will present its annual water show and demonstration. Each year, the boys and girls of grammar school and high school age formulate a program of aquatic stunts and present it to the public for their entertainment. This year's water show is under the direction of Vincent J. Natale, Aquatic Director for

Geneva Reports

DeSales Math Club Gets Charter Membership

Geneva — National recognition for the mathematics department of De Sales High School was received this week with granting to the high school a charter membership in the National High School Mathematics Club, Mu Alpha Theta.

Charter membership is granted to a high school only after a careful examination is made of course offerings and staff in mathematics by the national officers and governors of the club. Charter members have to achieve a grade average in mathematics of B-Plus for four semesters of solid mathematics and be enrolled in the fifth semester, and must have an overall average of B for all high school work.

FACULTY advisor for the De Sales High School chapter of the national club will be Sister Ann Xavier who has earned a BA degree in mathematics from Nazareth College.

The national mathematics club was organized at the University of Oklahoma in April, 1957, and now has national officers, governors, and chapters from Maine to California and a club in Alaska.

Purpose of the club is to reward accomplishment; to engender keener interest in mathematics; to develop even sounder scholarship, and promote the enjoyment of mathematics among more students.

Mathematics students from De Sales who received charter memberships along with the high school are Maureen Lynch, 109 N. Main St., James McGuire, 169 North St., Joseph Mihali, 51 N. Main St., and Sister Ann Xavier.

HOLY APOSTLES Rosary Society members will receive Holy Communion, Sunday, March 2, at 8 a.m. Mass. They are asked to wear badges. The Society will meet Wednesday, March 5, immediately after Lenten services. A film on meals and value of meat inspection, entitled "Your Meat Inspection Service" will be presented by Michael Cavalier of Tobin Packing Company.
