Geneva Reports

Deanery Plans Workshop At Saturday Luncheon

Geneva — Plans for a workshop in Geneva in April were discussed at the First Saturday luncheon of the Ontario-Seneca-Yates Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women Saturday in Canandaigua.

Because of the $200,000 fire at Treadway Inn, originally scheduled meeting place, the luncheon was transferred to the Knights of Columbus Home, Canandaigua.

Members expressed their thanks to Eureka's restaurant for providing the food for the luncheon and to Canandaigua Council K. of C. for the use of the home.

NINETY-TWO MEMBERS from all units in the Deanery were present. Mrs. Leo Geneco of Canandaigua, president, presided. The Rev. Robert Smith of St. Francis de Sales Church, Geneva, moderator, introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. William White, assistant pastor of St. Mary Church, Canandaigua.

Father White's subject was the meaning and the meaning of the Scapular in honor of Our Lady. Scapulars were at each place at table.

Also present at the luncheon were the Rev. John Rossi and the Rev. Alphonsus Crimmins, pastor of St. Mary Church, who spoke briefly.

During the business meeting plans were made for a Cana Conference for married couples, to be held at St. Francis de Sales parish, Geneva, at a date to be announced.

A day of recollection will be held from 3 to 4 p.m. March 30 in St. Mary Church, Canandaigua. A prayer meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women is scheduled to be held at 8 p.m. April 17, in Canandaigua.

First Saturday Deanery Luncheon will be deferred to the second Saturday of April because of Holy Saturday. The luncheon hostesses will be Shortsville-Manchester units.

Chairmen for the March luncheon were Miss Ann Schütz, Miss Isabelle O'Rourke and Mrs. Leo Dillon.
