AMONG WOMEN

Saint Of The Irish

By Mary Lennon Snyder

For several years now, one of my militant Irish friends has remonstrated with me that I have not written a panegyric on St. Patrick for one of my columns in March. My reason for not having done so reflects not at all on my love or respect for the saint; I have not written about St. Patrick because I try to avoid repetition and I know many others will write and speak on this subject in mid-March.

I was pleased to see in the current issue of a national magazine distributed by one of the large food chains a double page spread on St. Patrick and St. Brigid with an explanation of their place in Irish history and verses by Phyllis McGinley.

INFORMATION about St. Patrick seems much more readily available than it used to be. I recall having asked in a Catholic shop for a copy of his famous prayer and being met with blank expressions. Within the year I purchased from a Catholic shop a beautifully illustrated card carrying the heart of the famous prayer:

"Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger, Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger."

At this time of the year I sometimes wonder what there is about Ireland and her people that has made him so much better known in America than the missionaries to other lands.

Stars Give A Big Hand

By Mary Lennon Snyder

A big hand for... is the way it goes in the show business world but the procedure is reversed by above stars, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Lawrence Welk and Bill Lundigan who are giving a great big hand to the 1958 Bishops' Relief Fund Appeal for funds to continue the tremendous program of overseas relief assistance. All the stars plus announcer Ken Carpenter and others have given their time and talent for a series of telecasts to be heard on local radio stations in conjunction with the national campaign to raise $5 million. You can give a hand by making a contribution to the Bishops' Relief Fund, Empire State Building, N.Y. or to your neighborhood Catholic Church. A big hand for the boys, please - Crosby, Hope, Welk and Lundigan!

DOINGS AT THE DALY'S

By Mary Toley Daly

"Enraptured by my sunset light We sat the hour around breath about, Content to let the north wind roar In baffled awe at you and door."

It had been a day of complete loneliness, all of us together for the first time in an utterly isolated world. Sitting around the fireplace in the evening, yawning and desultorily talking, we felt like Whitman's own family described in his poem except that radio, TV and telephone had kept us in touch with the world. The storm was gone and its interruption of normal activity was a state of grace.

"Next noon we watched with the about Of every voice high and clear; And saw the toasters glowing near To break the drifted highways out."

Well, they weren't toasters, though their driers probably belong to the Toasters' Union. They were municipal snow plows and they had come to dig us out. They dug out the street and piled snow to the top of parked cars. Then the individual dug out.

NEIGHBORS were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging expert notes. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.

There were mutual "how-to-do-it" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out; a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of spool wooden "tracks."

Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.

It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.

"Yet, happy, in some hilly life, Some trace of God which breaks its stride, The worldling's eyes shall gather dew, Dreaming in thoughtful city ways Of greater joys his neighborhood knew."

The youngsters had a winter carnival of coasting, playing fox and geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

"Shut in from all the world without,

St. Joseph's House Lists Redemptorist

The Rev. Charles Schenkel, C.S.R., of St. Joseph's Church, will speak at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 102 1/2 South Ave., at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, Mar. 18. He will talk on St. Joseph, whose feast is the day following.

The public is welcome to attend meetings at the hospital house where free meals and lodging are dispensed daily to hospitalized and distressed men. Open meetings are held every Tuesday night on Apr. 1 there will be a talk titled "Is Education Falling?" by Dr. Joan M. Kagan of the State Teachers College, Geneseo.

Catholic Women Ask Civic Equality

Lausanne, Switzerland (RNS) - The Catholic Women's League of French-speaking Switzerland declared here that it is "false" to oppose woman suffrage in the name of the Church.

The statement noted that papal announcements endorse "the civic equality of women with all the consequences which that equality entails."

A bill is pending in the national parliament to give women equal voting rights with men in the federal election.

Quebec Trappists Take To Farming

Quebec City, Canada (RNS) - The Trappist monks of Quebec will temporarily leave their cloister of the Abbe de la Riviere on Wednesday, March 19, at 8:15 p.m. This is presented in the Rochester Museum Association Adult Lecture Series.

The announcement was made by Agriculture Minister Laurent Burre at the Legislative Assembly here. The Trappists have been teaching agriculture since 1934. They will now devote themselves entirely to prayer and farming, the minister said.

Chka cheese made by the monks is in wide demand here and in the United States. Their farm is considered one of the finest in Quebec.
