

NOTICE!!!
Monday - Tuesdays and Wednesdays
Until 4:00 P.M. 1.50
Shampoo and Wax 1.75
Special Hair Treatment 6.95
MAY NICHOLAS
HAIR STYLIST
417 CHILI AVE. GE. 8-9427
NO APPOINTMENT NECESSARY

Ten Year Old
Makes First
Recording
Ten year old Marie Bartlett is Rochester's newest recording star. Her first record, released last week, features "Sweet Old Fashioned Girl" on one side, and on the other, "Little Red Doll" a song written specifically for her.

MARIE BARBLETT

Marie's father, the late John Thomas Bartlett, Sr., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bartlett of 170 Westinghouse Park, members of Holy Apostles Parish.

The annual Youth Week award is among the many trophies Marie has won since she began singing in 1937. Marie spends her vacation at the famous beach-park resort at Long Beach, California, where she has also had many other guest appearances at various occasions.

Her first record on the Gram label is now available in local music stores.
Lecture On Hawaii
Hawaii, photographed in color, is featured in the illustrated program by Fred William Hall of Southfield, Michigan, at the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences on Wednesday, March 16, at 8 P.M. Tickets are presented in the Rochester Museum Association Adult Lecture Series.

ORIENTAL and
DOMESTIC RUGS
Cleaned and Repaired
Your old rugs can be made to look like new again. All rugs are protected by insurance against fire and theft while in our possession.
GRAY'S
251 SANFORD ST.
Greenfield 3-4947

AT ALL
CRICO STORES
LUX
For All Fine Washables
LARGE . . . . . 33c
RINSO
SOAP AND BLUE
Large 33c Giant 75c
LIFEBUOY SOAP
Reg. 3 for 29c
Bath 2 for 27c

LUX Toilet SOAP
The Heavy Soap of Screen Stars
REG. . . . . 3 for 29c
BATH-SIZE . . . 2 for 27c
SWAN SOAP
Pure White Floating
Reg. 3 for 29c - Large 2 for 29c
SPRY
1 Lb. 39c 3 Lbs. 99c
SILVER DUST
Reg. 33c Giant 77c

WISK Reg. 41c
Large 77c
FOR LAUNDRY
SURF . . . . . 33c
NEW NO-RINSE
LUX LIQUID
12-oz. 39c 22-oz. 69c
DOVE BEAUTY BAR
Made with Cold Cream Base
Reg. . . . . 2 for 39c
Bath . . . . . 2 for 49c

Condensed
ALL
24 oz. 49c 10 lb. $2.59

INFANT of PRAGUE STATUES
DRESSED STATUES 13" $2.25 - 18" $5.50
TWO SIZES
STATUE of OUR LADY of GRACE
18" High $2.50 each
Also Other Religious Items
SOLD AT DIRECT-FROM-MANUFACTURER PRICES
HAMILTON 6-8526
Mail Orders Accepted at 260 Pennsylvania Ave. - or 480 Child St. Add 50c for Postage and Handling
Outside Rochester.

CLASSIFIED ADS
RATES - 7c a word - Stamps or cash to cover cost of the ad must be in this office, 35 Scio Street, 48 hours before publication date.

Moving
MOVING? Call Chem. Dependable, reasonable prices. Free estimates. (Since 1921) L. J. Callahan, 400 Flower City Bldg., 507-2500; Baker 5-6149; Glenside 8-1917-W. We buy used furniture.

Infant of Prague
SPECIALIZED in Infant of Prague Statues. Beautifully finished. Separate Unit, Mrs. Baumgartner, Bldg. 2-4110, 1120 Child St.

Painting - Paperhanging
PAINTING, PAPERHANGING, DECORATING. ATTENTION! ILLUSTRATED! Alfred Doe and Son, 155 Rosewood Terrace, Bldg. 2-3153, Hilliard 2-3153.

Painting
PAINTING, PATCH PLASTERING. We can repair any crack or rough plaster. Guaranteed not to show. HI. 2-9213.

Photography
CHILDREN, CASUAL WEDDING. Albums, slides and home portraits, photographs restored. Robert C. Howell, 1109 Franklin Road, Congress 6-1888.

Unwanted Hair
SUPERFLUOUS HAIR permanently removed. Medically approved. FEBER'S HAIR POLYMERIZATION. 1101 Temple Building, Hamilton 6-8933.

Carpenter
GENERAL remodeling guaranteed satisfaction; free estimates. HI. 2-9213.

Electrical Work
RESIDENTIAL - commercial, industrial. Immediate service. Reasonable rates. Commercial Electric Co., Elmwood 6-3256; Bldg. 2-3153.

Communion Dresses
MOTHERS! Little girls' special dresses designed and made for them alone. Communion and Confirmation types. 140-6-3400.

Easter Gifts
PERFECT GIFTS FOR EASTER and all occasions. Beautiful Infant of Prague statues and mulligans. Come see and compare. BU City 8-222.

House Plants
IS YOUR PLANTER LOOKING DRAB? Let us repair it for you with beautiful plants. Special attention given to light requirements. Home in heart plants suitable for home, office, industry. Also FLOWERS and GARDENS. James H. Wood, Sun Greenhouses, 503 Terrace, 1623 Postland Ave., 1145 Ridge Road, E. - Sundays 2-5, Daily 9-5-Evenings.

Furnished Apartment
BETLES HEAD SECTION - Quiet studio, full bath, refrigerator, lady preferred. GEORGE 8-5537.

Help Wanted Male
CIVILIAN STEWARD - CIVIL REPLY. Resumes prepared. If necessary, list in or out. Box CC-38, Courier Journal.

Guild Workers Seek Members
St. Elizabeth Guild is conducting the annual membership campaign during the month of March under the chairmanship of Mrs. Adolph Winterbrock.
Committee workers are: Mesdames Edward Eber, Howard Fitzgerald, William Heintz, Fred Rubin, Roy Leary, Herman Low, Patrick McCarthy, Judith Noll, Ronald McDonald, James P. Ruch, George Schnurr, George A. Thorne, Ralph Weis, Joseph Ritz and William Woerner.

St. Joseph's House
Lists Redemptorist
The Rev. Charles Schenkel, C.S.S.R., of St. Joseph's Church, will speak at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 402 South Ave., at 8:15 p.m., Tuesday, Mar. 18. He will talk on St. Joseph, whose feast is the day following.
The public is welcome to attend meetings at the hospitable house, where free meals and clothing are dispensed daily to homeless and transient men upon meetings are held every Tuesday night on "April Foolery" by Dr. John McKernan of the State Teachers College, Geneseo.

Catholic Women
Ask Civic Equality
Lausanne, Switzerland (RNS) - The Catholic Women's League of French speaking Switzerland declared here that it is "false to oppose women suffrage 'in the name of the Church'."
The statement noted that papal announcements endorse the civic equality of women with all the consequences which that equality entails.
A bill is pending in the national Parliament to give women equal voting rights with men in the federal affairs.
Except for a few local exceptions, Swiss women just now vote in either federal, cantonal or communal elections.

Quebec Trappists
Take To Farming
Quebec City, Canada (RNS) - The Trappist monks of Quebec will terminate their direction of the Institute of Agriculture there in 1956, when they contact with the government export.
The announcement was made by Agriculture Minister Laurent Beaulac at the Legislative Assembly here. The Trappists have been teaching agriculture since 1939. They will now devote themselves entirely to prayer and tending the minister said.
Oka cheese made by the monks is in wide demand here and in the United States. Their farm is considered one of the finest in Quebec.

ARTIFICIAL LIMBS
Also Braces, Sacro-coccyg Belts, Elastic Stockings, Trusses
WOODRUFF
BRACE and LIMB CO.
173 CLIFTON ST.
(Near St. Mary's Hospital)
Open Daily 8:30-5, Sat 'Til Noon
EVEs by Appr. Call GE 8-8232

Stars Give A Big Hand
A big hand for... is the way it goes in the show business world but the procedure is reversed by above stars, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Lawrence Welk and Bill Lundigan who are giving a great big hand to the 1958 Bishops' Relief Fund Appeal for funds to continue the tremendous program of overseas relief assistance.
All the stars plus announcer Ken Carpenter and others have given their time and talent for a series of recordings to be heard on local radio stations in conjunction with the national campaign to raise $5 million. You can give a hand by making a contribution to the Bishops' Relief Fund, Empire State Building, N. Y. C. or to your neighborhood Catholic Church. A big hand for the boys, please - Crosby, Hope, Welk and Lundigan.

Religious Orders
Of Women
In Our Diocese
Mother CAROLINA VALLO.
DAUGHTERS OF ST. MARY OF LECCE
Daughters of St. Mary of Lecce of St. Michael's Mission Seminary, Geneseo, New York, are a new religious foundation in the Church. They were organized by Mother Elisa Marini in the Province of Lecce in Italy on March 20, 1938.
Their chief purpose is Social Work, which embraces the following undertakings: direction and operation of orphanages, materities, kindergartens, private nursing and visiting the prisons. They are in charge of the domestic department at St. Michael's Mission Seminary, Geneseo, and the St. Mary's Preparatory Seminary, Buffalo. The Sisters have foundations also in Canada, Australia, Belgium and Lombardy. They wear a white habit with a blue sash and white rosary and a black cape when travelling. (One of a series.)

MOTHER CAROLINA VALLO.

Stars Give A Big Hand
A big hand for... is the way it goes in the show business world but the procedure is reversed by above stars, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Lawrence Welk and Bill Lundigan who are giving a great big hand to the 1958 Bishops' Relief Fund Appeal for funds to continue the tremendous program of overseas relief assistance.
All the stars plus announcer Ken Carpenter and others have given their time and talent for a series of recordings to be heard on local radio stations in conjunction with the national campaign to raise $5 million. You can give a hand by making a contribution to the Bishops' Relief Fund, Empire State Building, N. Y. C. or to your neighborhood Catholic Church. A big hand for the boys, please - Crosby, Hope, Welk and Lundigan.

Winterland
1958
By Mary Tinley Daly
"I'm afraid in any sunset light We sat the clean wind heartily about,
Central to let the northward
in
In luffed our at your and
door."
It had been a day of complete loneliness - all of us together for the first time in an utterly isolated world. Sitting around the fireplace in the evening, singing and desultory talking, we felt like Whittier's own family described in his poem except that radio, TV and telephone kept us in touch with the way the storm was going and its interruption of normal activity. Business was still and so was life.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Saint Of The Irish
By Mary Lennon Snyder
For several years now, one of my militant Irish friends has remonstrated with me that I have not written a panegyric on St. Patrick for one of my columns in March. My reason for not having done so reflects not at all on my love or respect for the saint; I have not written Patrick because I try to avoid repetition and I know many others will write and speak on this subject in mid-March.
I was pleased to see in the current issue of a national magazine, distributed by one of the large food chains, a double page spread on St. Patrick and St. Bridget with an explanation of their place in Irish history and verses by Phyllis McGinley.
INFORMATION about St. Patrick seems much more readily available than it used to be. I recall having asked in a Catholic shop for a copy of his famous prayer and having been met with blank expressions. Within the year I purchased from a Catholic shop a beautifully illustrated card carrying the heart of the famous prayer:
"Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger, Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger."
At this time of the year I sometimes wonder what there is about Ireland and her patron saint that have made him so much better known in America than the missionaries to other lands.
Other nations have been com-

DOINGS AT THE DALY'S
By Mary Tinley Daly
"Un-accid in any sunset light We sat the clean wind
heartily about,
Central to let the northward
in
In luffed our at your and
door."
It had been a day of complete loneliness - all of us together for the first time in an utterly isolated world. Sitting around the fireplace in the evening, singing and desultory talking, we felt like Whittier's own family described in his poem except that radio, TV and telephone kept us in touch with the way the storm was going and its interruption of normal activity. Business was still and so was life.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

MISS ROSE ANNOUNCES...
NEW SPRING COURSE
IN
CHARM and MODELING
ENROLL THIS SATURDAY
MARCH 15th AT 11 O'CLOCK
EDWARD'S 6th FLOOR
8 WEEK COURSE $10.00

AMONG WOMEN
Saint Of The Irish
By Mary Lennon Snyder
For several years now, one of my militant Irish friends has remonstrated with me that I have not written a panegyric on St. Patrick for one of my columns in March. My reason for not having done so reflects not at all on my love or respect for the saint; I have not written Patrick because I try to avoid repetition and I know many others will write and speak on this subject in mid-March.
I was pleased to see in the current issue of a national magazine, distributed by one of the large food chains, a double page spread on St. Patrick and St. Bridget with an explanation of their place in Irish history and verses by Phyllis McGinley.
INFORMATION about St. Patrick seems much more readily available than it used to be. I recall having asked in a Catholic shop for a copy of his famous prayer and having been met with blank expressions. Within the year I purchased from a Catholic shop a beautifully illustrated card carrying the heart of the famous prayer:
"Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger, Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger."
At this time of the year I sometimes wonder what there is about Ireland and her patron saint that have made him so much better known in America than the missionaries to other lands.
Other nations have been com-

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Neighbors
Neighbors were doing the same thing and we called back and forth, exchanging experiences. Though some of the neighbors had moved in recently and we'd never met before, we all became friends.
There were mutual "how-to-do-it's" with demonstrations of rocking the car back and forth to get it off the ice. Somebody had a chain and pulled us out; we used the chain to get somebody else out - a chain reaction - and a borrowing and lending of small wooden "tracks". Everyone who went by on foot joined in the conversation. We met more people than we would ordinarily meet in a month of the usual routine.
It was a body-chilling but heart-warming session.
"Yet, happily, in some ill of life, Some trace of God which breaks its strife,
The worldling's eyes shall gather dew,
Dreading in thoughtful city ways Of winter joys his boyhood knew."
The youngsters had a Winter carnival of coasting, playing fox-and-geese, making snow men, building forts and having snowball battles, skiing, making "snow angels" and the like. We were all more-or-less youngsters during the hiatus from daily duties in which we had thought we were indispensable.

Executive Placement Corporation
EMPLOYMENT SERVICES
AND CONSULTANTS
Men and Women
Sales, Accounting
Executive Search
Investment Administration
5-0240
715 Sibley Tower Bldg.

GERHARD
OPTICAL CO.
F. J. GRESS, PROP.
69 MAIN ST. E.

OLD GOLD
Old and Broken Watch
Jewelry, etc., etc.
If it looks like gold let us check it without charge
Estimates Free on Mail Shipments.
Honesty is the best Policy.
LEVINSON BROS.
48 NORTH ST.
Next to Church Entrance

Care For Your DIAMOND
RING
Bring in your diamond ring
and have it cleaned and checked
This is a service we render to our customers without any charge or obligation.
Open Mondays - Tues. and Thurs.
through Saturdays - until 9 o'clock

BERNARD J. HENSLER
Jewelry - Diamonds
307 COMMERCIAL BLDG. - 119 MAIN ST.

Old-World Flavor!
Old-Fashioned Goodness!
ZWEIGLE'S BOCKWURST
FINEST YOU EVER TASTED!
Insist on Zweigle's at Your Neighborhood
Food Store or Telephone HAMILTON 6-4660
214 JOSEPH AVE.

The Cobblestone House
Early American Furniture 10 ROOMS OF FINE FURNITURE 1094 Culver Rd. BU. 8-1977
CULVER FURNITURE INC.

CORRECTION . . . . .
MONSIGNOR MANEY'S PILGRIMAGE IS DUE BACK JUNE 25th AND NOT JULY 5th AS INCORRECTLY STATED IN LAST WEEK'S ARTICLE.
2 BOOKINGS AVAILABLE . . . . .
CALL IMMEDIATELY . . . . .
KALBFLEISCH
TRAVEL AGENCY
17 CLINTON AVE. S.,
Telephone: Baker 5-5440

RRI LEARN
SHORTHAND Through
Speedwriting
TYPING OPTIONAL
NIGHT SCHOOL Only
... in 12 WEEKS!
Class begins MON., MARCH 24
★ Enroll Now! ★
Phone HA. 6-0680 For Folder & Complete Information
ROCHESTER BUSINESS INSTITUTE
172 CLINTON AVE. SOUTH • HAMILTON 6-0680

MISS ROSE ANNOUNCES...
NEW SPRING COURSE
IN
CHARM and MODELING
ENROLL THIS SATURDAY
MARCH 15th AT 11 O'CLOCK
EDWARD'S 6th FLOOR
8 WEEK COURSE $10.00

LET US
MAKE YOUR CLOTHES
LOOK
NEW FOR Easter
Want to save on clothes for Easter? Send us your entire family's wardrobe for our thorough cleaning and expert pressing. Colors and fabrics come back brighter, fresher, like "new." Call now.
FREE PICK-UP...AND...DELIVERY
HA 6-1080
Longman's
475 SOUTH AVE.

SEE THESE Faster
SPECIALS
Men's or Women's
Topcoat ..... $2.00
Men's or Women's
Suit ..... $1.50
Childs Suit or
Topcoat ..... $1.10