Father Ringwood Explains Priesthood Preparations

—Geneva — "Come follow me and I will make you fishers of men," this quotation from the Bible was used by the Rev. Raymond Ringwood of St. Stephen's Church in a talk on "Vocations" before the Rosary Altar Society.

Members met Wednesday in the school hall following attendance at Rosary and Benediction in the church.

Talking for his subject the vocation to the priesthood, Father Ringwood described the extensive training required preceding ordination.

CANDIDATES spend six years of study in the minor seminaries which includes four years of High School and two years of college under spiritual rule. Students continue on to the major seminary where they have two more years of college and receive a degree. Then they study theology for about four years before being ordained to the priesthood.

After the talk Father Ringwood showed slides which included records and script made by the Seminarians in St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester. The slides were divided into two sections, first dealing with the "Hours of the Priesthood" and the second, "How Does One Become a Priest?"

Mrs. James Walker, president of the society, presided at the meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made that a public card party will be held on April 16 under the sponsorship of the Rosary and Altar Society and the Holy Name Society of St. Stephen's parish.

Also scheduled is a bake sale on April 13, in the Loblaw store in the Town and Country Plaza. Mrs. Herbert Crowley and Mrs. Stanley Powers are co-chairmen.

A reception for new members is slated for May 7. Members of the nominating committee include Mrs. James Donahue, Mrs. Alice Kennell, and Mrs. John Monahan. A yearbook sale has been formalized. Announcement of the numbers.

The first Saturday luncheon originally planned for April was postponed to the first Saturday in May with Stoneville-Mandeville hosts. Plans for holding the luncheon will be announced.

A Day of Recollection will be held at St. Thomas Parish on St. Thomas Sunday in St. Mary's Church, Canandaigua.

April meeting of the Rosary and Altar Society has been cancelled because of Holy Week. Next meeting will be held May 7.

5-A Students Top Sale Goal

St. Agnes High School students sold over $10,000 worth of subscriptions to the Catholic Digest, topping their intended goal by $1,000, in a drive sponsored by the Digest to promote its circulation in reading campaigns. Part of the profits will go to the school.

Top salesmen for the campaign was Betty Kernacki, who was awarded a transistor portable radio. Second prize of a clock radio went to Jack Russer and a personalized desk lamp was presented to Sally Vandenberg for coming in third. A plaid hat box was the fourth place prize and it was awarded to Judy Weber. The top six salesmen were presented with a set of pens.

For Missions All-Star Cage Game Scheduled

Sixth annual St. John Fisher College all-star basketball game will be held March 17 in the Nazareth College Gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. Following the tradition of former years, the proceeds from this game will be donated to the Mission Societies of Nazareth and St. John Fisher Colleges.

The league champions, the Kraulers, will play an all-star team composed of players selected from the other teams in the league. The Kraulers eked out a two-point win over the Angels to clinch the title.

Four Aquinas Seniors Receive Commendation

Four seniors at Aquinas Institute were commended by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation for their outstanding performance on a nationwide college aptitude test according to Rev. Leon G. Hart, C.S.B., vice principal.

The seniors honored are Joseph F. Scholand of St. John's Parish, Spencerport; Gerard W. Frank of Sacred Heart Parish; Donald E. George of Blessed Sacrament Parish and Michael J. Fagan of Our Lady of Help Parish.

THE ANNUAL National Merit Scholarship competition offers the largest system of privately financed scholarships in the United States. Scholarships may be used at any college of the candidate's choice.

The Madison group of the International Federation of Catholic Alumni will hold a meeting at the St. Thomas Women's Club, Auburn on Sat. at 8 p.m. to discuss the day.

Spokesman for the meeting will be Rev. John Hayes, S.J. of McQuaid Jesuit High School. Mrs. H. M. Mottola is chairman of the meeting.
