• The President of the local gas company was making a stirring address. "Think of the good the gas company has done," he cried. "If I were permitted a pun, I should say, 'Hor our the Light Brigade!'"

And a customer immediately shouted: "Oh, what a charge they made."

Holy Week Rites Set On TV

The dramatic rites of Holy Week will be featured in a special telecast from Rochester's WROC-TV, Channel 5, this Sunday from 10:30 to 11 a.m.

Produced in France, the film program will show highlights of Catholic Holy Week ceremonies.

Pope Pius XII in 1955 drastically revised and rescheduled the rituals which annually mark the final days of Christ's life on earth and His resurrection on the first Easter.

Most significant of the Pope's changes was his restoration of Holy Communion to the people on Good Friday and placing the Holy Saturday Easter Vigil service close to midnight, its original setting.

Prior to the 1955 revision, only the priest received Communion on Good Friday and the Saturday rite was held early in the morning—customs dating from the late Middle Ages.

Sponsors of Sunday's telecast, the National Council of Catholic Men, urge Catholics to watch the program as a preparation for taking part in the rites in their parish churches.

The Council also presents the program for shut-ins who cannot attend the church rites.

HIGHLIGHTS of Catholic Holy Week ceremonies such as the blessing of the new fire, shown above, will be seen in a special film on WROC-TV on Palm Sunday. The program will be telecast from 10:30 to 11 a.m. on Channel 5.

Dansville Minstrel

Dansville — Plans have been advanced for the annual Knights of Columbus Minstrel Show to be held April 24-26 in the Dansville High School auditorium. Reserved seats will go on sale April 12.

Braxton Middleton, director and general chairman, announced that the first rehearsal will be held Sunday in the K of C. Hall.

New Composition Listed

Washington—(NC)—The first performance of "Ingredients Domine," a new musical work by Father Russell Woollen, will be presented on the Catholic Hour radio program on March 30.

The program is carried on WHAM, 1180, in Rochester at 2:30 p.m.

Father Woollen is director of chorus and liturgical music activities at the Catholic University of America. The text of his composition for the program is taken from the responsory concluding the blessing of palms, preceding Palm Sunday Mass. "Ingredients Domine" will be sung by the Peloquin Chorale of Providence, R.I.

Family Theatre to Open

Buffalo—(NC)—A downtown movie theater devoted exclusively to family entertainment will be opened here in April by a religious community which specializes in the use of modern communications.

To be called "The Catholic Theater," it will be located in a 1,200-seat movie house formerly known as the Paramount Niagara. The present schedule calls for programs only on Sunday afternoon and evening.

Bishop Joseph A. Burke of Buffalo granted permission for the experiment to the Pious Society of St. Paul, a community of men founded in Italy in 1914.

Only films classified as family entertainment by the National League of Decency will be presented.

Entertainers Told Not To Advertise Faith

Albany—(RNS)—Catholic entertainers should not advertise their faith, a Franciscan priest said here.

The Rev. Edgar Holden, O.F.M. Conv., professor of theology at St. Anthony-on-Hudson in nearby Rensselaer, said it was "no great boon to the Church that we are able to 'see stars' among our numbers." He addressed the annual Communion breakfast of the State Labor Department's employment division.

"I AM pretty tired of holding my breath every time a theatrical personality lets it be known that he or she is a Catholic," Father Holden said. "And I am equally fed up with trying to look the other way when the same entertainer becomes a 'fallen' star in the eyes of the Church."

Referring to a "leading distaff TV personality as the latest casualty," Father Holden cited an article in a recent issue of a widely-circulated Catholic magazine "which left the reader with the impression that 'here's a girl just short of a halo.'"

"While it is not up to us to sit in judgment on the state of a person's soul," Father Holden said, "might it not be better to adopt the wise policy of Mother Church? She canonizes saints only after their death."

Monday, March 31 — William Weiland, Holy Cross.

Tuesday, April 1—Michael Del Vecchio, St. Patrick, accompanied by Catholic War Veterans of St. Patrick.

Wednesday, April 2 — August Maier, Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Thursday, April 3 — Edward Mason, St. Monica, accompanied by members of Southwest Center, Nocturnal Adoration Society.

See Movie Ads Growing More 'Objectionable'

Albany—(NC)—Motion picture advertising "is becoming increasingly objectionable," a committee of the New York state legislature declared here.

In its annual report the Joint Legislative Committee on Offensive and Obscene Material took exception to the "lurid displays to attract the prurient minded, and the garish presentations of horror and terror" which it said, are becoming increasingly common in movie ads.

The committee pointed out that such advertisements in newspapers and on billboards "frequently distort the character or content of the motion pictures actually shown."

State obscenity statutes, the committee report added, "will be fruitless without greater interest, assistance and cooperation on the part of the courts."

Priest's Records Finance Church

Leiden, Netherlands—(NC)—A Franciscan priest here has his own solution for financing a new church in this western Dutch city of 87,000.

Father Auxentius van Schaien, O.F.M., who has a trained singing voice, arranged with a recording company at the Hague to record four songs which he sang, accompanied by A. Martijn, a church organist from Leiden.

Profits from the sale of the recording will be used to finance construction of the new church.
