

Rules Given For 'Ad Altare Dei' Cross

Bishop Kearney will present the Ad Altare Dei Cross to qualified Scouts and Explorers on June 6 at St. Augustine's Church.

Candidates preparing for the ceremony should adhere to the required schedule which includes completing all three steps, having the application properly signed by the parent, Scout leader and chaplain and be a first class scout by May 10.

Final board of review for the highest Catholic Scouting Award will take place at the Columbus Civic Center on May 10th for candidates East of the river and on May 24th for candidates West of the river; according to Rev. Eugene H. McFarland.

Scouts outside of Monroe County are invited to contact their local council chairman or unit leaders who will coordinate the plans for the actual award with the Rochester group.

The Catholic Lay Committee on Scouting has appointed Dennis Andrew Meritt chairman of the ceremony.

CYO In the News

LEARN TO SWIM
Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, director announced that the CYO will offer a concentrated Learn To Swim Program for Non-swimmers and Beginners during Easter Vacation holidays.

Youngsters will be grouped within their age bracket and will be given a definite time each afternoon for the five days that the program is being held.

There will be a qualified instructor to teach each six to seven youngsters in the class. Classes will be limited.

Registration can be made by calling BA 5-7400 Ext. 11.

Girl Scouts Receive Flag

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 419 of Corpus Christi Parish received a flag from Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 187 at ceremonies last week. Commander Francis M. Weber is shown presenting the flag to Sandra Taylor, Mary Ann Russell and Nancy Tufano.

Aquinas Senior Wins Veterans Essay Contest

An Aquinas Institute senior who plans to enter the Basilian Novitiate was judged the winner of the Monroe County Chapter, Catholic War Veterans essay contest, Ralph Bleier, third vice commander of the chapter, announced.

Robert Boykin, 17, of 202 Chesterton Rd. took as his topic, "My Duty as a Catholic American in the World of Business." It was judged the best of 12 entries submitted by seniors from Aquinas, McQuaid Jesuit High School and Edison Tech.

ROBERT BOYKIN

BOYKIN is a member of St. John's Parish, Greece. He is president of the CYO at St. John's and writes for the Aquinas school paper. An officer in four student clubs, Boykin is fifth in his class scholastically.

Judges for the contest were Rev. Anthony Calimeri, chapter chaplain, Frank Witzel, a member of St. Augustine's Post, and Frank Wolfe, past recipient of the Monroe County Chapter CWW's outstanding Catholic Layman award.

Women Bowlers Tournay Slated

First annual Catholic Women's five-woman Handicap Tournament, sanctioned by the WIBC will be conducted at Ferry's Bowling Center, 583 West Ave., May 11, 18 and 25.

Tournament is open to all Catholics who are members of the WIBC and RWBA. Highest average in any league last year must be used.

Entrants can bowl only once. For added information call Lorraine Schwind, BE 5-1465, 220 Dorstone Road.

Family Swimming

Family Swim is held each Sunday afternoon at the CYO so that every family group can take part in a swim program designed for the entertainment of the entire family.

Families need not be members of the CYO, but it is necessary that at least one parent accompany the youngsters into the swimming pool.

From 2:30 to 4:30 is the time set aside for this popular event.

CYO Lists Junior Sports Tournament

The Columbus Youth Organization will hold a Junior Sports Tournament at the CYO gymnasium and auditorium, 50 Chestnut St. on April 26 with a total of 225 prizes to be awarded to winners.

The tournament is open to both boys and girls and entry blanks are being distributed to schools, organizations, Scout troops and dance organizations.

COMPETITION has been broken into four age groups: 10 and under; 11 and 12 years; 13 and 14 years; and 15 to 17 years-of-age.

The boys will compete in a physical fitness pentathlon, consisting of a 25-yard dash, standing broad jump, rope climb, push-ups and chin-ups to determine the outstanding boy athlete.

The girl's events will be aerobic dancing, cheer leader groups, tumbling and other activities. The program is designed to conform with the president's plan for physical fitness in the nation's youngsters.

Speedy Therm Says
"When You Buy A PENFIELD You Buy Hot Water Service!"

Here's What He Means!

When you buy a water heater, you don't want just a tank with a heating unit. You want years and years of dependable, trouble-free hot water service. In today's homes, where automatic washers are the rule rather than the exception, you have to be sure your water heater was built to keep pace with your modern appliances. And with more and more homes using automatic dishwashers, you have to be sure your water heater is piping-hot, clean and rust-free.

Your new PENFIELD glass-lined automatic-gas water heater gives you this assurance. And your RG&E 10 year warranty protects you from expensive tank replacements every few years.

So for hot water service, stop in or call your RG&E Appliance Center soon.
