AUXILIARIES Split First Holy Communion Classes

Of the K. of C.

Ladies Auxiliary of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus is holding its annual Rummage Sale today, Friday, March 28 at 200 West Main Street. The hours of the sale are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Richard Thiele, general chairman, is being assisted by a large committee.

First Holy Communion classes at St. Stephen's Church have grown so large that it has been found necessary to divide the class into two sections.

Saturday, May 3rd, is the date for Sister Grace Noel's class. Saturday, May 10, is the date for Sister Agnita's class and children attending the public school.

Parishioners To Be Feted Reception At St. Vincent's

Members of the parish of St. Vincent de Paul Church, Churchville, have been invited to an informal reception from 2 to 5 p.m. on Palm Sunday at the church.

Purpose of the reception is to acquaint the parishioners with the work already accomplished toward the completion of a parish hall, suitable for use as a meeting place for parish societies and other parish activities.

Father John L. Maxwell, church pastor, said that the hall had been used since last year as a catechetical center with 60 children from the primary and intermediate grades and a similar number in the junior-senior high school group attending release time classes.

Parents Fete Church's Team, Cheer Leaders

The parents and boosters of the Church of Annunciation's high school basketball efforts put on a supper for the team and cheerleaders recently.

Charles Cappadonia, coach of the team, said that the season was not outstanding for its victories (6 wins against 13 losses) but a spirit of good fellowship and fine sportsmanship made the year worthwhile for all.

The award for the most improved player went to Allan Knutowicz. The most valuable player trophy was taken home by Anthony Cappadonia, whose game average was 14.2 points.

A new trophy with the title of our favorite cheerleader was given to Ann Mingola. These awards were made as a result of voting by the team, the cheerleaders, the staff and those who followed the team.

After the awards had been given, Father Simonetti, pastor, thanked the parents and friends and, especially Coach Cappadonia for all the time and interest and effort that make this event and the basketball season a success.

Mercy Will Hold Class Oratorical Championships

Mercy High School students will compete against each other in the class championships in the annual Bishop's High School Oratorical Contest to be held Monday.

Competing will be: seniors Mary Bull, Marlene Grillo, Paul J. V. L. Martha Kramarek, Peggy Minice and Sharon Pettit; juniors Judy Cavallaro, Joyce Fiano, Elaine Klingler and Ann Williams; sophomores Mary Kay Austin, Martha Doel, Kathleen Jordan and Rosemarie Klossowski; freshmen, Sheila Dwyer, Sue Klingler, Joanne Madigan and Rosalie Sassano.

From this group four speakers will be chosen regardless of class. These four will then compete in the school finals on April 16. Here they will be viewed by guest judges.

The winner will be acclaimed school champion and may also be the school representative in the Bishop's Oratoricals.
