

Rules Given For 'Ad Altare Dei' Cross

Bishop Kearney will present the Ad Altare Dei Cross to qualified Scouts and Explorers on June 6 at St. Augustine's Church.

Candidates preparing for the ceremony should adhere to the required schedule which includes completing all three steps, have the application properly signed by the parent, Scout leader and chaplain and be a first class scout by May 10.

Final board of review for the highest Catholic Scouting Award will take place at the Columbus Civic Center on May 10th for candidates East of the river and on May 24th for candidates West of the river, according to Rev. Eugene H. McFarland.

Scouts outside of Monroe County are invited to contact their local council chairman or unit leaders who will coordinate the plans for the actual award with the Rochester group.

The Catholic Lay Committee on Scouting has appointed Dennis Andrew Merritt chairman of the ceremony.

CYO In the News

LEARN TO SWIM

Rev. Eugeng H. McFarland, director announced that the CYO will offer a concentrated Learn To Swim Program for Non-swimmers and Beginners during Easter Vacation holidays.

Youngsters will be grouped within their age bracket and will be given a definite time each afternoon for the five days that the program is being held.

There will be a qualified instructor to teach each six to seven youngsters in the class. Classes will be limited.

Registration can be made by calling BA 5-7400 Ext. 11.

BOWLING

Judge Joseph G. Fritsch, honorary chairman, and Nick Nickson, honorary vice chairman, announced this week that CYO Business Men's Club Inter-HI Bowling Tournament now has 111 teams registered for bowling during Easter vacation.

This tournament is designed for high school students who normally do not have the chance to bowl in high school competition.

There are still a number of opening left for teams to sign up to take an active part.

Climax of the Inter-HI Bowling Tournament will be a Nick Nickson Record Hop in the CYO Auditorium. All participants will take part and awards and trophies will be presented to champions.

Judge Joseph G. Fritsch gave the following names as the committee working behind the scenes to make this program a success: Judge Fritsch gave the following names as the committee working behind the scenes to make this program a success.

Aquinas Senior Wins Veterans Essay Contest

An Aquinas Institute senior who plans to enter the Basilian Novitiate was judged the winner of the Monroe County Chapter, Catholic War Veterans essay contest, Ralph Bleier, third vice commander of the chapter, announced.

Robert Boykin, 17, of 202 Chesterton Rd., took as his topic, "My Duty as a Catholic American in the World of Business." It was judged the best of 12 entries submitted by seniors from Aquinas, McQuaid Jesuit High School and Edison Tech.

BOYKIN is a member of St. John's Parish, Greece. He is president of the CYO at St. John's and writes for the Aquinas school paper. An officer in four student clubs, Boykin is fifth in his class scholastically.

Judges for the contest were Rev. Anthony Callimeri, chapter chaplain, Frank Witzel, a member of St. Augustine's Post, and Frank Wolfe, past recipient of the Monroe County Chapter CWV's outstanding Catholic Layman award.

CYO Lists Junior Sports Tournament

The Columbus Youth Organization will hold a Junior Sports Tournament at the CYO gymnasium and auditorium, 50 Chestnut St. on April 26 with a total of 225 prizes to be awarded to winners.

The tournament is open to both boys and girls and entry blanks are being distributed to schools, organizations, Scout troops and dance organizations.

COMPETITION has been broken into four age groups: 10 and under; 11 and 12 years; 13 and 14 years, and 15 to 17 years of age.

The boys will compete in a physical fitness pentathlon, consisting of a 25-yard dash, standing broad jump, rope climb, push-ups and chin-ups to determine the outstanding boy athlete.

The girl's events will be aerobic dancing, cheer leader groups, tumbling and other activities. The program is designed to conform with the president's plea for physical fitness in the nation's youngsters.

Xavier Club Lists Father Hektor

Father Thomas Hektor, assistant pastor of St. Thomas Church, will be the guest speaker at the Xavier Club of Holy Cross Church annual day of recollection on Palm Sunday.

The day will begin with Mass at 10:15 a.m. with all the members receiving Holy Communion. This will be followed by a breakfast in the hall.

There will be services in the afternoon and the day will close with recitation of the Rosary and Benediction at 5:15 p.m. General chairman is Thomas Leicht.

Eastman House Exhibit
A portfolio of photographs by Walter Goodwin is now on display in the Study Room of the George Eastman House. The exhibit will continue until April 27.
