ROCHESTER MISSIONARY, the Rev. James P. Courneen, M.M., distributes palms in his Bolivia mission.

Rochester Missioner In April Issue Of Maryknoll

Cala Cala, Bolivia. — A Rochester missioner, Father James P. Courneen, Maryknoll, palm at his remote mountain mission in Bolivia is featured in the article, "Andean Holy Week" in the April issue of Maryknoll, a national magazine.

FATHER COURNEEN, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Courneen, of 54 Rugby Ave., has been stationed in the Andes Mountain area of Bolivia since 1933. Holy Week in the Andes is said to be an experience a visitor never forgets. It is celebrated with all the pomp and pageantry of old Spain. The people of the Andes do not hide their emotions. Highlight of the week is the Good Friday commemoration when a statue of Christ is buried in an outlying tomb. The statue is escorted to the tomb in a great procession in which are carried statues of the Blessed Mother and the Apostle John.
