No Strikes On These Lassies

SPRING means baseball—even at St. Agnes High School. Carole O'Brien learns the best techniques for hitting from Sherry Ring school physical education instructor while Gail Wegmann holds forth the catchers spot during Spring softball practice at the East River Rd. school athletic field. Spring school sports include tennis, golf and archery, in addition to softball. St. Agnes baseball may not be major league but it's more than Brooklyn has.

McQuaid Sports Night Scheduled For Sunday

The Fathers' Club of McQuaid Jesuit High School will sponsor the fourth annual Father and Son Sports Awards Night on Sunday, April 20 in the school's gymnasium.

A special Sportsman Award will be made to a varsity or junior varsity athlete whom the coaches and athletic moderators have judged to typify the qualities of sportsmanship, maturity, and Christian competitiveness that best portrays the spirit of McQuaid.

MORE THAN 200 students will receive varsity letters, junior varsity certificates, or freshman certificates for participating as members of various interscholastic teams.

In addition to the awarding of letters and certificates, the father and sons will witness an exhibition by the school's tumbling team and will hear several musical numbers and "The Mollars," a quartet of local dentists, Drs. Howard Lybold, Wilfred Springer, Hugh Averill and Fred DeGalle.

Main speaker of the evening will be Donald E. Robinson, local attorney, who played on the basketball teams of two Jesuit schools, Brooklyn Preparatory School and Fordham University.

Also being awarded are certificates of merit which carry no cash awards. The names of these award-winners are printed in a merit book which is sent to all colleges and scholarship agencies. In past years, an average of two-thirds of these have been selected for scholarships other than merit scholarships.

Five subjects are tested including English usage, mathematics usage, social studies reading, natural science reading and word usage.

Spelling Contests At Mercy High

"Perforated... accommodate... conscientious... facsimile." These and hundreds of other spelling demons confronted students in English classes a few weeks ago.

Under the direction of Mercy's principal, Sister Mary Florence, three spelling tests of 200 words each will be administered in homerooms to the entire student body, beginning the week of April 21.

The list contains approximately 600 words most frequently misspelled.

Eliminations will take place at the completion of the tests. One winning girl from each class. The finalist will be picked from these four.

Requiem Offered For Mother Of Ten

Solemn Requiem Mass for Mrs. Raffaella Caputo was offered in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, Wednesday, April 16, after services in the Falco Funeral Home, 39 Woodward St.

Mrs. Caputo, 65, widow of the late Anthony Caputo, of 56 Davis St., died Saturday, April 12, 1938 at Northside Hospital.

The Mass was offered by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles J. Assi, assisted by Rev. William J. Congro, deacon and the Rev. Dominick P. Mockovius, subdeacon. Present in the sanctuary were Rt. Rev. Msgr. John E. Mancy and Rev. Joseph L. D'Aurizio of Corpus Christi Church.

Mrs. Caputo was a charter member of the ladies auxiliary, Knights of St. John No. 285. Six members of the auxiliary acted as honor guards.

She is survived by three sons: James, Louis and George; seven daughters, the Misses Carolyn and Rose, Mrs. Joseph (Marie) Emanuel, Mrs. John (Adeline) Campanaro, all of Rochester, and Mrs. John (Lucy) Lotito Jr., Mrs. John (Auge) Molinaro and Mrs. Alfred (Jo) Santelli of Lyons, N.Y.; one sister, Mrs. Angelina Marasco, and seventeen grandchildren.

Blessing at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery was imparted by Rev. Raymond M. Wuest.

Mercy Sisters Win Fellowships

Three Sisters of Mercy of the Rochester community have been awarded fellowships by the National Science Foundation for further education this summer.

Sister Mary Josephine and Sister Mary Bonaventura have been granted fellowships in the department of mathematics for the summer session at Notre Dame University.

Sister Mary Stanislaus has also been awarded a fellowship to Saint Louis University in the department of chemistry.
