Knights List Bp. Kearney For Convention

His Excellency Bishop Kearney will participate in three major events of the coming national convention of Knights of St. John and Ladies auxiliary in Rochester, the Rochester Reporter announced this week.

The Bishop of Rochester who is a former supreme spiritual adviser of the international order will celebrate Solemn Pontifical Mass in Rochester Community War Memorial, Sunday morning, June 29.

AT THE FORMAL opening of the convention, Saturday, June 28, Bishop Kearney will speak. This event at which the Bishop will attend will be the convention banquet, Sunday, June 29 at Hotel Manger.

Very Rev. Gerald J. Whelan, C.S.S.R., rector of St. Joseph Church, will preach at the Pontifical Mass. The uniformed units of both organizations will assemble on Broad St. Bridge and march in procession to the War Memorial for the Mass.

6 Eagle Scouts At Cathedral

SACRED HEART CATHEDRAL Boy Scout Troop and Explorer Post No. 68 will have six Eagle Scouts rewarded at the Court of Honor listed in the school hall April 23 at 7:30 p.m. His Excellency Auxiliary Bishop Casey will preside. Eagle Scouts are: (front from left), Michael Blyk, Meak Keenan and Joseph Gugino; back, Robert McGinty, William O'Neill and Charles Bragg. Blyk and O'Neill attend Aquinas Institute, the others, McQuaid Jesuit High.

Aquinas Librarian Addresses Convention

A good librarian, like a good host, will see that his "guests meet the right people," Rev. John R. Whitley, C.S.B., librarian at Aquinas Institute, said in Buffalo last week.

He spoke at the annual convention of the Catholic Library Association at the Statler Hotel attended by over 650 librarians from the United States and Canada.

"The librarian who puts the student in touch with great thinkers and develops his appetite for good reading has done well," Father Whitley said. He described a good library as "basically an academy frequented by the best minds of all ages."

Mr. Quinn, graduated from Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass. in 1947. He taught at McQuaid High School in 1956.

Rochester-Born Priest Breaks Ground for Church

Ground was broken last week for the new St. Teresa Church and rectory in Albany, Ga. of which the Rev. Marvin J. LeFrois, native of Rochester, is pastor.

Auxiliary Bishop Thomas J. McDonough of Savannah was principal speaker. Father LeFrois also spoke.

The new church structure which is of contemporary design will be located on Edgewood Lane adjacent to St. Theresa Convent in Albany, Ga.

The building is to be constructed of masonry units exposed on both the interior and exterior.

Eight laminated wood arches, decked with Western white fir, will span the nave. This portion of the church which seats 500, will feature windows glazed with plastic panels laminated over cuts of wood.

To the left of the front entrance will stand a 42-foot high tower surfaced with ceramic tile panels. The balcony over the narthex will contain the choir and a soundproof "cry room" for convenience of mothers with small children.

Father Marvin LeFrois is a brother of the Rev. Vincent LeFrois, assistant pastor of St. Andrew Church.

Enrolls 142 Frosh

Enrollment at Notre Dame High School, Elmira shows a total registration of 142 freshmen. It is anticipated that this figure will well exceed 150 by the opening in September.

The high school, staffed and built by the Sisters of Mercy was constructed at a total cost in excess of 1 1/2 million dollars.

'AUTO BUY' CAMPAIGN SPURS LOCAL BUYING

By Frank J. Giblin

The Rochester Automobile Dealers' Association recipe for a wedding cake, celebrating the union of recalcitrant automobile buyers and eager-beaver car salesmen appears to be a prize-winning one for the community at large.

Baked under the soothing rays of the slogan "Help Keep Business Healthy," each layer representing cooperative efforts of press, radio, television and civic support, the product of promotion has been masterfully created.

All that remains is to apply the frosting of industry profits and divide the cake as equally as possible between the sponsoring dealers.

By the same token, the resulting increase in consumer spending for new and used automobiles cannot help but have an energizing effect upon the sales in many branches of consumer spending.

Automobile advertisers who have effectively used the Courier Journal for many years report that many motorists are bringing in cars for trading which, prior to this moment, they had planned to drive for at least another year.

Realtors To Observe New Sunday Ruling

Following a trend in the selling of homes thru Realtors throughout the nation and a fitting part of the observance of Realtor Week, the Real Estate Board of Rochester at a recent general meeting approved the recommendation that homes shall not be held open for inspection on Sundays, effective July 1, 1958, it has been announced.

There has been much support for this decision from Realtors and real estate brokers generally and from religious organizations as well as the public, realtor spokesmen say.

Real estate is one of the few remaining businesses that currently does a great deal of sales promotion on Sunday principally thru the medium of holding houses open for inspection. The organization believes that the home-buying public for many years on a five day week has ample opportunity to inspect and negotiate home purchases during weekdays and on Saturday.

The new ruling will allow realtors their Sundays for church going as well as a day of relaxation with their families in the true spirit of the Lord's Day.

Enquiry Center Enrolls 50,000

The Catholic Enquiry Center here reported that over 50,000 non-Catholics have enrolled for its instruction courses in the Roman Catholic faith since the bureau was started four years ago.
