

Sodality Will Receive Members

Some 50 members of the student body of Nazareth College will be received into the Sodality of Our Lady on Thursday, May 1. Bishop Kearney will preside over the ceremony which climaxes eight months of preparation by the girls.

The reception will begin at 2:15 p.m. in the auditorium; a tea honoring the new Sodalists and their guests will follow.

General chairman is Amelia Dezek; she is being assisted by Judy Foyd, invitations; Betty Boyle, publicity; Sue Capparelli, entertainment; Loretta Demer and Angela Fina, chapel arrangements; Beth Lang and Kathy O'Hara, programs, and Marlene Mullaney, refreshments.

Nazareth College faculty and students will participate in a student government workshop on Sunday, April 27. Under the leadership of members of the Student Council, headed by Candidia Pilla, president of the Undergraduate Association and Moya Neville, vice-president, the group will discuss "The Unfinished Business of Student Government."

Papers will be presented on the functions and authority of Student Government. Officers of the Undergraduate Association for next year, Stephanie Sullivan, president, and Mary Agnes Lynch, vice-president, will take an active part in the program.

This workshop serves both as training for new officers and student council members and as a means of acquainting all interested students with the Student Government program at Nazareth College.

Boy Encampments List Vacancies

Camp Stella Maris office announces that vacancies are still available in "A" encampment (1 week — June 23 to June 28) price $35.50, and "B" encampment (2 weeks — June 29 to July 12) price $66.00.

Both of the above are boys encampments and when they are filled a limited number will be taken on a waiting list. For further information call 5-3555-7100, Ext. 1.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours will be conducted in the following churches of the Diocese of Rochester:

Sunday, April 27 — St. Ann, Hornell; St. Cecilia, Elmira; St. Isaac Jogues Chapel, Elmira; St. Patrick, Prattsburg; St. Francis, Phelps; St. Patrick, Victor; St. Joseph, WeedSPORT.

Speaker

REV. RENNARO J. VENTURA, administrator of St. Lucy Church who will address men of the First Friday Luncheon Club, May 2 in Hotel Sheraton. He will be presented by the Rev. E. Leo McLannan, club moderator. Father Ventura will speak on shrines of the Blessed Mother he has visited in Europe.

Attendant Will Get Psychiatric Aide Award

Mrs. Mary Frances Parina of 24 Hobart St., will be presented with the annual psychiatric aide achievement award of the New York Society for Mental Health at the eighth annual Kenneth Kohler Slight Memorial Lecture at 8 p.m. today, Friday, at the Rochester State Hospital.

Mrs. Parina, an attendant at the hospital since 1939, is assigned to the Orleans Infirmary. She will receive the award from Dr. Christopher F. Terrence, director of the hospital.

THE MOTHER of five children, Mrs. Parina also has a cousin, a priest. He is Father Frank Bioni, a member of the congregation of St. Basil, attached to Aquinas Institute. Two of her nieces, Sisters Catherine Anne and John Margaret, are members of the St. Joseph order. The former teaches at Nazareth

MRS. MARY PARINA

Academy and the latter is at St. Francis Xavier School.

Prior to the presentation, Dr. Alastair W. MacLeod, assistant director of the Montreal Hygiene Institute, will deliver a lecture, at 8 p.m. The mental health committee of the Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County is sponsoring the lecture.

LAST WEEK'S PAID CIRCULATION
55,899

St. Agnes Students Lists Two Dances

The first of two Father-Daughter-Dinner Dances at Saint Agnes High School will be held at the school on April 28, from 6:30 to 11 p.m. Sponsored by the Student Council, these "Dates with Dad" are among the most popular of the year's social events.

This Monday, it will be the juniors and seniors who hold a dance and on Wednesday, May 7, the sophomores and freshmen will entertain and be charmed by their dads.

Senior Sue Scheffel and junior Allison Alexander are co-chairmen for this dance and are aided by Mary Ann Ogila, ticket committee; Patricia de Young, publicity; Sharon Reedy and Mary Ann Lodato, decorations, and Vicki Newton, table favors. After the dinner, Michael Setta and his orchestra will provide music for dancing in the school gym.

African Women

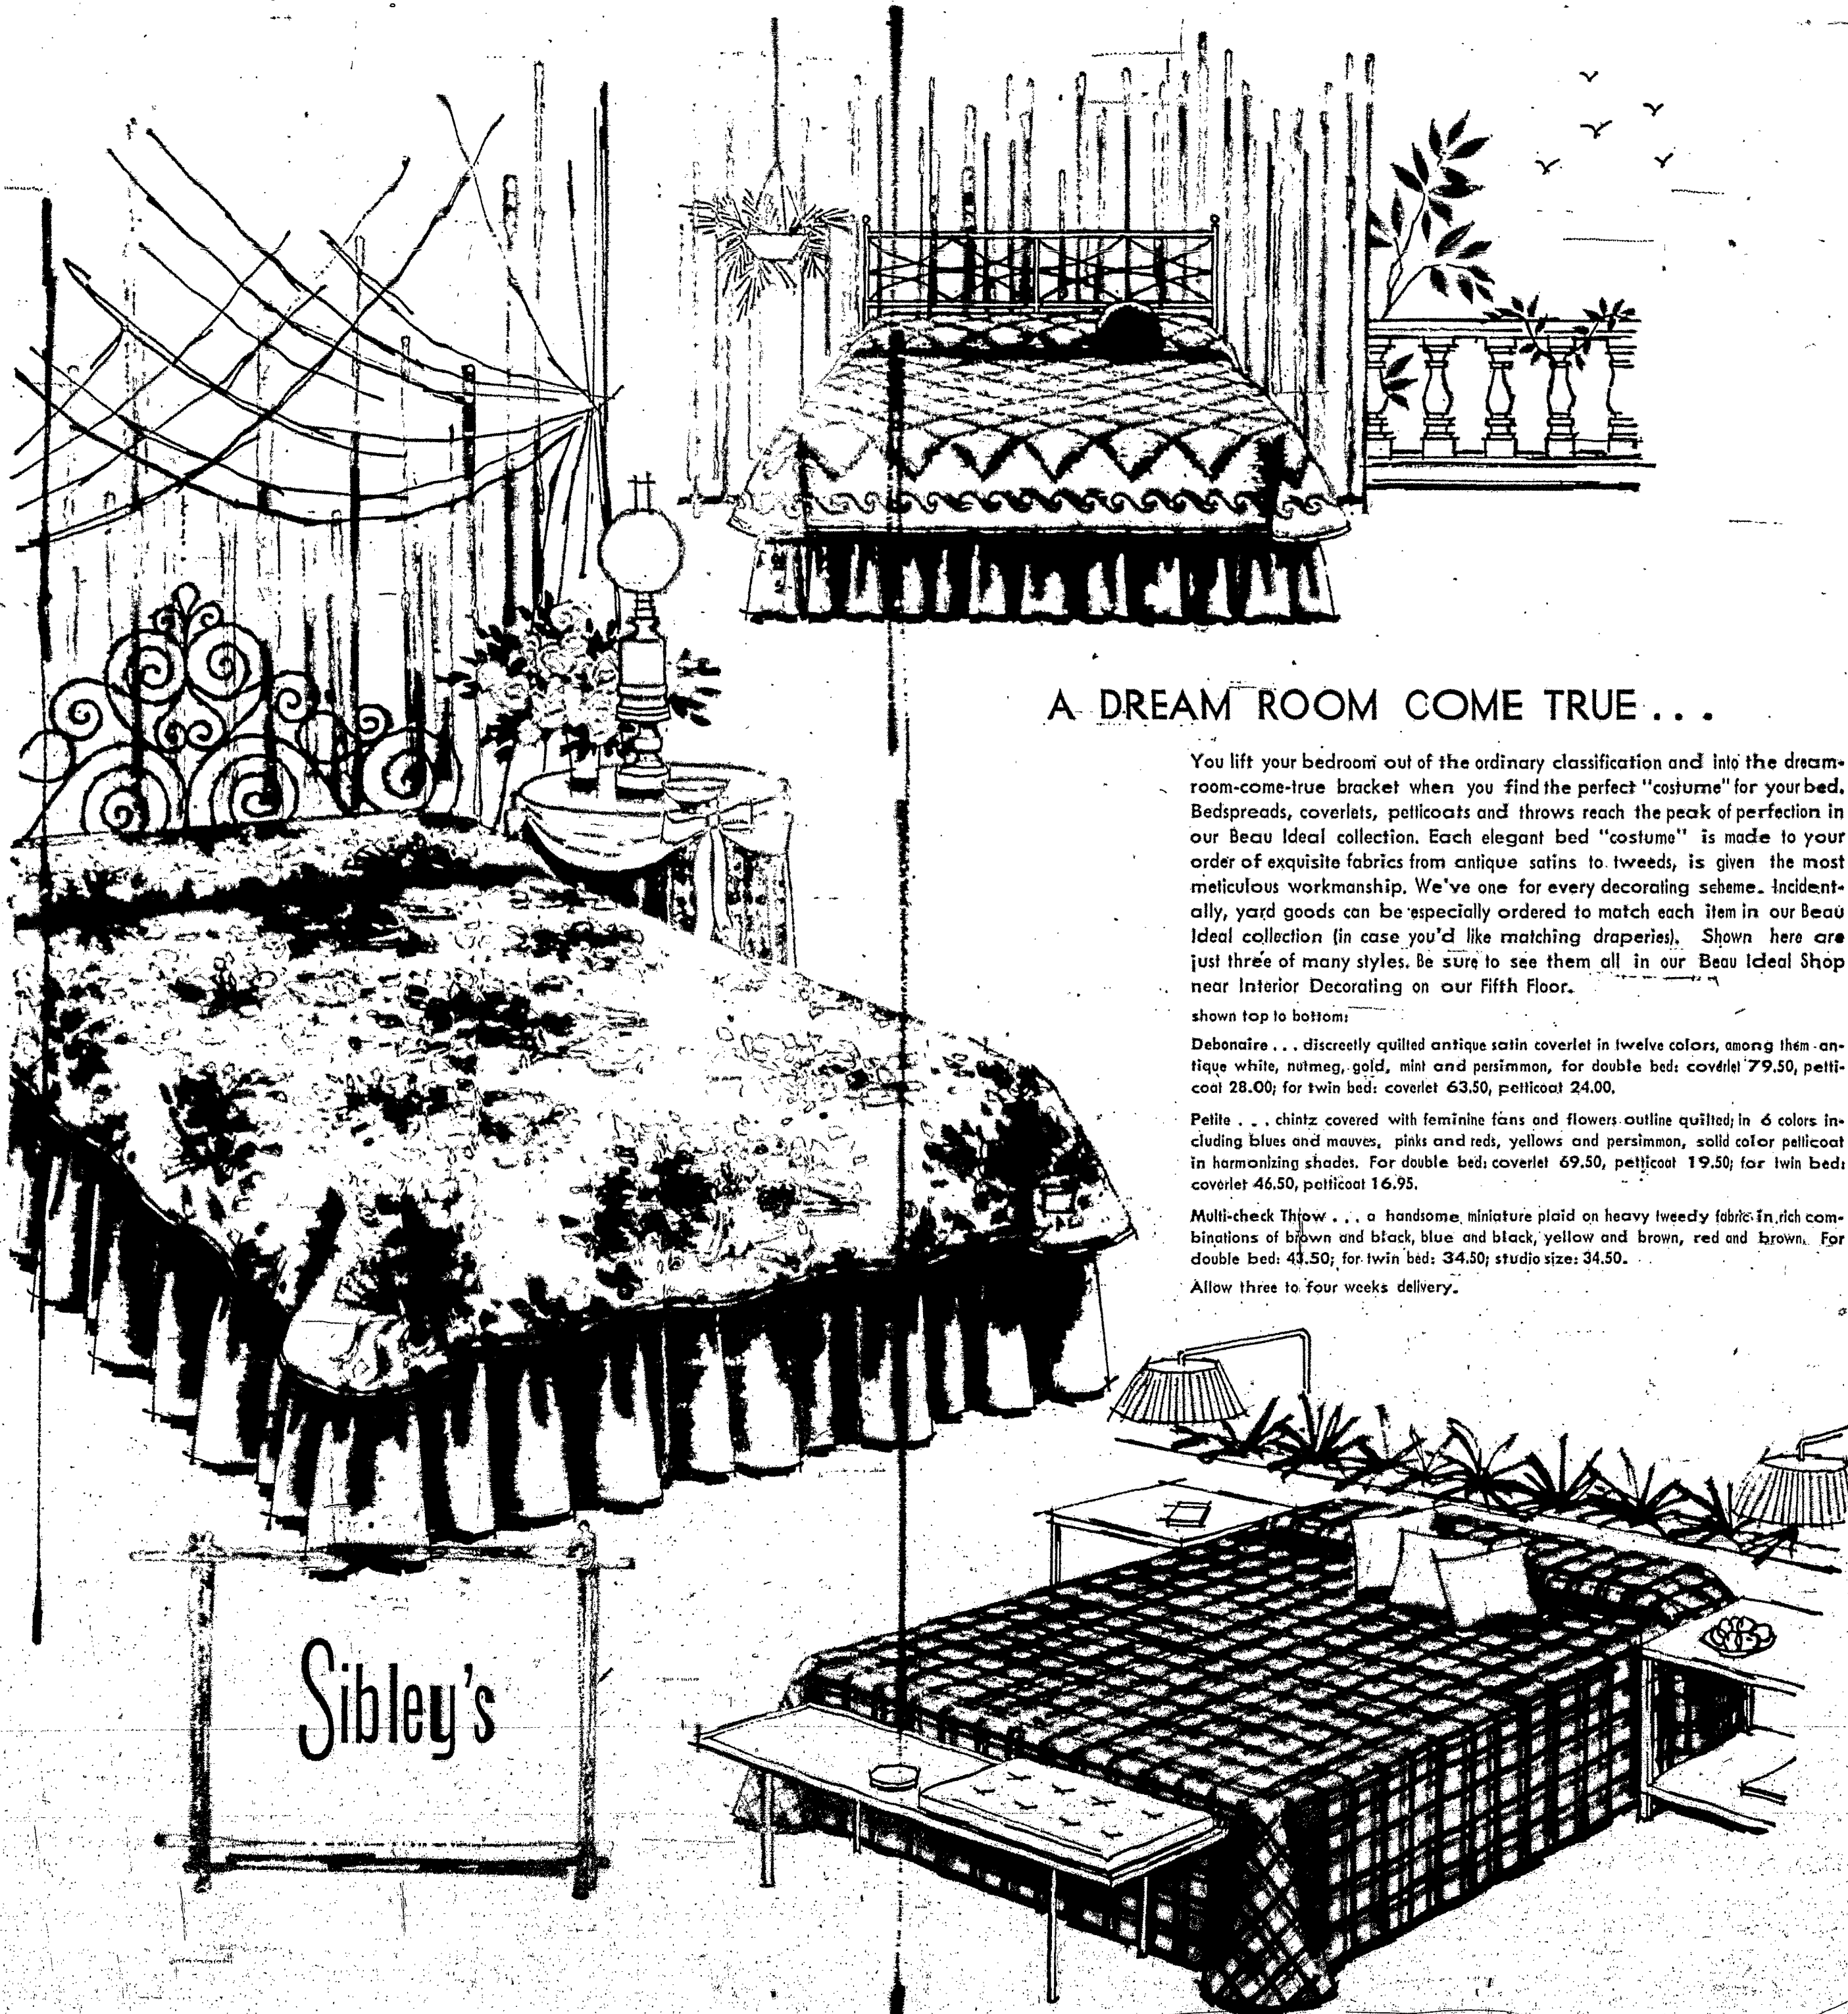

Lome, Togoland — (NC) — "The African Woman and Her Mission" is the theme of a congress of African Catholic women to be held here from July 15 to 25.

Physicians Guild Slates Breakfast

Catholic Physicians Guild of the Diocese of Rochester Communion Breakfast will be held at St. Mary's Hospital, Sunday, May 15, Mass at 8:15 a.m. will be celebrated by Monsignor Arthur E. Baigan, diocesan director of Catholic Chaplains and Guild moderator.

Two guest speakers will be heard at the breakfast. They are the Rev. William Jamison, C.S.S.R., of Notre Dame Retreat House staff and Dr. Anthony J. Guzzetta who will talk on Leonardo da Vinci.

A DREAM ROOM COME TRUE . . .

You lift your bedroom out of the ordinary classification and into the dream-room-come-true bracket when you find the perfect "costume" for your bed. Bedsreads, coverlets, petticoats and throws reach the peak of perfection in our Beau Ideal collection. Each elegant bed "costume" is made to your order of exquisite fabrics from antique satins to tweeds, is given the most meticulous workmanship. We've one for every decorating scheme. Incidentally, yard goods can be especially ordered to match each item in our Beau Ideal collection (in case you'd like matching draperies). Shown here are just three of many styles. Be sure to see them all in our Beau Ideal Shop near Interior Decorating on our Fifth Floor.

shown top to bottom:

Debonaire . . . discreetly quilted antique satin coverlet in twelve colors, among them antique white, nutmeg, gold, mint and persimmon, for double bed: coverlet $79.50, petticoat 28.00; for twin bed: coverlet 63.50, petticoat 24.00.

Pelite . . . chintz covered with feminine fans and flowers outline quilted; in 6 colors including blues and mauves, pinks and reds, yellows and persimmon, solid color petticoat in harmonizing shades. For double bed: coverlet 69.50, petticoat 19.50; for twin bed: coverlet 46.50, petticoat 16.95.

Multi-check Throw . . . a handsome, miniature plaid on heavy tweedy fabric in rich combinations of brown and black, blue and black, yellow and brown, red and brown. For double bed: 43.50; for twin bed: 34.50; studio size: 34.50.

Allow three to four weeks delivery.

Sibley's