Requiems Held For Two Sisters

Last rites for two Sisters of Saint Joseph who died during the past week were held at Nazareth Motherhouse, Pittsford. Sister M. Carmelita Ryan was a member of the order for 59 years, and Sister M. Vivian Adamski was in the 54th year of her religious life.

Monsignor Charles F. Shay celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass for Sister Carmelita last Saturday. He was assisted by Monsignor John S. Randall, deacon; Rev. Thomas M. Reddington, sub-deacon; Rev. Albert H. Schnacky, master of ceremonies; Rev. Anthony Pohle, SS.CC. and Rev. Robert L. Kress, acolytes. Also present were Monsignor Edward K. Ball, V.P., and Rev. James R. Barnett, S.J.

The last blessing at the grave was given by Monsignor Shay, assisted by Monsignor Joseph H. Gefell and Father Schnacky.

Sister Carmelita was principal of the old Cathedral Grammar School for 15 years. She entered

Takes City Manager's Post In Student Government Day

Jeanne Hogan, 17, a senior student at St. Agnes High School, took over the city position as city manager this past Wednesday when students from all parts of the city became the "elected" officials of the city in the fourth annual Student Day in Government, sponsored by the Rochester Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Jeanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Hogan of 593 Baines Park and a member of Sacred Heart Cathedral Parish, is one of the top students at St. Agnes and plans to attend college in the Fall.

Her top two selections are St. Thomas College in Texas and Assumption College in Canada.

Other Catholic high school students who participated in the day were Carol Santee of St. Agnes and Brian Fleming, McQuaid, city councilman; Gerald Esterheld, McQuaid, assessor; Suzanne Christ, Nazareth Academy, purchasing agent; Judith Konezny, Nazareth, city clerk; Thomas Aeo, Aquinas, comptroller; William Crandell, Aquinas, police chief; Mary Ellen Baker, Our Lady of Mercy, public relations director, and Carolyn Kilpper, Mercy, executive secretary of civil service.

Oratory Finals Held By Schools

Defeating four of her schoolmates, junior, Elaine Klingler won Our Lady of Mercy High School's oratorical championship at a school assembly on April 16. Her topic was "Advertising."

Miss Klingler will now go on to represent the school in the Bishop's Oratorical Contest, this year to be held at Mercy on May 8.

Her win was prefaced by a long hard climb up the oratorical ladder at Mercy where school-wide competition began weeks ago in English classes when every student delivered a two-minute speech. This was followed by elimination contests for the 20 best speakers from each class.

Mary Sheehan, principal of Monroe High School, Norcross, Ga., Mercy graduate, '44, a teacher at Franklin, director of the Music Theater and winner of the Bishop's Oratoricals in 1944; Sol Linowitz, president of the Chamber of Commerce and a prominent Rochester lawyer, and William O'Brien, a former speech coach at St. Michael's College, Toronto, were the judges.

Other participants in the school finals and their topics were senior Marlene Grillo, "A Woman's Place is in the Home," senior Sharon Pettis, "The Message of Lourdes," junior Ann Williams, "Education for Women" and sophomore Rosemarie Kloskowski, "Movies and Morality."

Oratoricals at Mercy are under the direction of Sister Mary Plus, Junior Mary Ellen Baker, treasurer of the dramatic society, the Tiespians, was the mistress of ceremonies of the final competition.

Ask Daily Rosary Of Each Family

Canandaigua—An Apostolate to encourage the Family Rosary during each day of the month of May is being conducted by St. Mary's High School Sodality, here.

Personal contacts by the 40 Sodality members will be made with all high schoolers of the parish. Pledge cards will be given personally to each of the fathers of families encouraging the Family Rosary in the home during May.

Cards will be collected and placed on Our Lady's Altar as a formal sign of devotion to the Rosary.

Faculty Social Set In Mercy Library

Canisius Library Club members at Our Lady of Mercy, will serve as hostesses during a Faculty Social in the library, Wednesday afternoon, April 30, to commemorate the feast of St. Peter Canisius, patron of libraries.

Mary Ann Butler, a senior, will act as chairman.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

"HE MADE AS IF TO GO on further" In the chapter of Luke concerning the Risen Christ's meeting with the disciples of Emmaus these words sum up the life of Our Lord. Always He would have gone further. Greater and mightier works would He have done, but He could not because of their unbelief. He would have poured more waters of Life but our cups were too small; He would have showed more love but our hearts were already too filled with the things of the world. "I have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear to hear them now."

MILLIONS OF FAVORS are hanging from heaven on silken cords and sacrifices is the sword that cuts them. It is not that we are not empty enough, but that our emptiness is like an abandoned mine rather than a nest which can be filled with the song of a bird.

OUR LORD WOULD HAVE GONE on further in Africa and China if we had not set up limitations. He would have gone on further in giving us peace of soul did we but empty ourselves more for the spread of the Kingdom of God. The tragedy of life is not what we suffer; the tragedy of life is what we miss. The saints are few because so few want to be saints. We live on the surface of our souls, not because God has limited His grace, but because we have set limits to its reception. He stands at the door and knocks. The latch is on the inside; He breaks down no doors.

APPLYING THIS TO THE MISSIONS we do not ask you to make a sacrifice solely to aid the 135,000 missionaries we ask you to make a sacrifice to aid yourself. We are interested not only in converting those who know not Christ but in sanctifying you who already know Him. Our Lord would go further with you if you sacrificed a pleasure and sent the equivalent to the Vicar of Christ through His Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Whatever you give to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith goes to him. He sends it to the Missions; we do not. He knows best how to divide your sacrifices. Give the Lord a chance and see how much further He would go with you.

GOD LOVE YOU to T.J.M. for $12.50 "I am an amateur artist and I promised Our Lord that I would send half of the amount received on my first sale. Here it is and may it help to 'draw' others to the love of God." ... to C.J.D. for $5 "Instead of shedding tears for the poor children of the world I will send this sacrifice to help to nourish their thin little bodies." ... to Mrs. S.K. for $1 "I promised a dollar a week as long as I keep working—this one will keep me up to date."

WHEN YOU PRAY THE WORLD MISSION ROSARY you go round the world with the missionaries and the poor whom they serve. When you send us your sacrifice-offering of $2 and request the rosary you help the missionaries who serve and the poor who wait to learn of Christ and Him Crucified. Pray and sacrifice.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N.Y. or your Diocesan Director, Rev. Geo. S. Wood, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

Altar Boys from St. Stanislaus Church served as acolytes and a large group of parishioners from St. Stanislaus attended the funeral.

At the grave the last blessing was given by Father Sludara, assisted by Monsignor Joseph H. Gefell and Father Klocek.

Sister Vivian was born in Poland and entered the Sisters of Saint Joseph in 1903. She taught in St. Casimir's and St. Peter and Paul School, Elmira, and St. Hyacinth's School, Auburn, before being assigned to St. Stanislaus School where she was a teacher for 10 years. Subsequent appointments include St. John's School, Greece, and St. Francis de Sales School, Geneva. Her last assignment was in St. Anthony's School, Rochester, from where she retired in 1953 because of ill health.

Surviving Sister Vivian are a sister, Mrs. Lillian Szathowski of Rochester, and a number of nieces and nephews.
