Camp Director Named At Camp Villa Maria
Constance Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Frank of Elmira, was appointed director of Camp Villa Maria for the 1958 season.
Miss Frank, who is completing her second year at Mercyhurst College in Erie, Pa., has had experience as a counselor at the camp and a supervisor on the City Playgrounds. She succeeds Mrs. Virginia O'Hara whose resignation after 10 years as waterfront director and later as camp director, was accepted with regret.
The announcement of her appointment was made by Dr. James A. Mark, president of the Camp Board. Dr. Mark also said that more than half the capacity of the camp has been filled. Beginning May 5, applications will be accepted from a waiting list of girls from out of town.
