

Heroism At Dachau On Catholic Hour

New York — (NC) — The dramatic story of a German youth who was ordained a priest while imprisoned in the infamous concentration camp in Dachau, Germany, will be presented on the Catholic Hour television program on May 4.

"The Victory of Father Karl" tells the story of Karl Leisner, who was imprisoned by the Nazis at Dachau in December, 1930. He became a priest through the courageous efforts of fellow prisoners at Dachau.

Produced by the National Council of Catholic Men in association with the National Broadcasting Company television network, the drama will be televised at 1:30 p.m. on WROC-TV, Channel 5 in Rochester.

AMONG WOMEN Sins Against Citizenship

By Mary Lennon Snyder

From time to time we have all read the list of "sins against citizenship." These "sins" are not only sins against citizenship in general, but also sins against citizenship in our own country. These "sins," as you may remember, are: 1. Indifference, for we say, "I'm not interested in politics." 2. Laziness, "I'm too busy." 3. Cowardice, "What I think is my own business." 4. Greed, "I'm doing OK as things are." 5. Prejudice, "I'll vote for him because 'he's one of our kind.'" 6. False pride, "I'm not going to get mixed up in dirty politics." 7. Cynicism, "My one vote won't make any difference."

With a minor re-phrasing here and there, the preceding seven reasons cover rather adequately the reasons given for failure to support parish activities.

Indifference among members cripples the most carefully planned program. Officers, working within the framework of a constitution, try to carry out organization's work, but they are helpless without members.

I HAVE NEVER encountered a parish organization the constitution of which proposed to entertain the members. If one is going to rate Madame President and her Ways and Means Committee with the same criteria as a high budget TV entertainment, naturally one will decide to stay home and watch television.

But if we do so, we are making a serious error. We are trying to compare totally different things. The parish organization has been set up to assist in some ways the work of the parish, to participate in a program of Catholic Action; in a word, to help spread God's Kingdom on earth.

In the face of these realities, how can one say, "I am too busy" or "I'm not interested," or "I'm not going to get involved in Church-affairs?"

Not one of the "sins" — indifference, laziness, cowardice, greed, prejudice, false pride or cynicism — is a pleasant quality, nor does any one of us aspire to acquire them as her own. Yet may it not be said of us that we are guilty of some, if not all of these, when we fail to enter into the life of our parish or neglect to actively support our church organizations?
