Officers Named By Knights Of St. John

Col. Emil G. Eckert of Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John, was reelected first vice president of New York Commandery and August Vicaretti, Mt. Carmel Commandery, was named secretary with the rank of major at the Grand Commandery delegates meeting in Albany over the past weekend.

John G. Buttner and Al G. Miller of Rochester were on the resolutions committee. The knights called attention to the Lourdes centennial and urged honor to the Blessed Mother; they reaffirmed their willingness to cooperate with the program of interracial justice. A resolution protested confiscation of civil rights in Ulster County, Northern Ireland and urged restoration of the family here at home.

Aquinas Graduate

THOMAS R. KNAPP, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Knapp, Jr., 47 Pembroke St., a 1947 graduate of Aquinas Institute has accepted a post in the Department of Education, Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass. He received his Bachelor and Master's degrees at University of Rochester where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. After two years in the Army, he is now studying for his Doctorate at Harvard University.

Double Confessional Puzzles Indians

Father Michael Kavanagh, S.J., Rochesterian, now in India installed a double confessional in his new church. His parishioners, accustomed to a single kneeler, became confused.

Whenever he closed one side they figured he was finished for the night on that side and the whole line would shift to the other side.

The last one in was a very tired penitent.

Father Kavanagh is one of 232 American Jesuits working in India.

Gas Station Will Give Profits To Holy Angels

Holy Angels Home, 1326 Winton Rd. N., will receive all profits from sales this weekend at one of Rochester's gas stations. The money will be turned over to the Holy Angels Home building fund.

Fred Wurster, manager of the Esso Service Station, East Ave. at the corner of 56th St., urged all friends of the Holy Angels sisters to visit his station during the 48-hour period of Saturday and Sunday, May 10 and 11.

"All the profits," Wurster announced, "from all sales of gas, oil, accessories, tires and other services sold on these two days will go to the Holy Angels Home Building Fund."

CONSTRUCTION is in progress on Holy Angels Monastery, an addition to the present school.

elementary grades, plus a two-year commercial course. There also is specialized training in home nursing, homemaking, sewing, needlework, dancing, craft and music.

Thirteen Holy Angels Sisters who staff the home live in a converted farmhouse which was to have been but a temporary convent when they moved into it 27 years ago. The new building will answer the need not only for better quarters for the Sisters but also for additional facilities for the girls under their care.
