THE LITTLE GAELIC SINGERS from County Derby visited Bishop Kearney at his residence prior to their concert at the Auditorium Theatre this week. The group, 24 in all, sang for the Bishop and later that evening entertained several thousand people with their Irish songs and folk dances. The girls, dressed in bright green dresses, and the boys, in green stockings and kilts, were directed and accompanied by James McCafferty. The Little Gaelic Singers' Rochester appearance was for the benefit of the Columban Fathers foreign Missions.

Nonconformists Heros In Latest Movie Trend

Seattle, Wash. — (NC) — The current Hollywood trend is to make a hero out of the rebellious nonconformist at the expense of the good and happy man, William H. Mooring, Hollywood columnist for some 50 Catholic newspapers, said here.

Mooring explained that from the movie maker's point of view "it is so difficult to be attractive when you're good and happy—but when you become wild and foam at the mouth, then you become a likely Hollywood character."

THE FAD in today's films, he declared in a lecture at Seattle University here, is to glorify nonconformity for nonconformity's sake.

As a case in point, Mooring offered the film version of the controversial book "The Nun's Story." He said the signs are that the movie will depict the principal character as a rebel and outcast, rather than as one who recognizes she made a mistake in entering religious life.

McQuaid Student Play Set

Students at McQuaid Jesuit High School will present "The Strong are Lonely," a story about a Jesuit Mission in Paraguay during the 18th century, at the high school auditorium on Saturday and Sunday, May 10 and 11, at 8:30 p.m.

The play was written by Fritz Hochwaeder and adopted from the original French by Eva Le Gallienne. Heading the cast are John DeSando, George Lappan, Timothy Scharf and Kenneth Sarkin. Rev. Edward Dolan, S.J. is the play's director and Joseph Billotti S.J. is in charge of stage mechanics.

A MODEL Indian village establish by the Jesuits in Buenos Aires of 1767 is the setting. The plot centers around an order by the Spanish government, based on slanderous rumors, to disband the village.

Alfonso Fernandez, S.J., played by DeSando, is the provincial director faced with making the decision to obey the order and disband or obey his instincts and protect the Indians from the slavery which must result if the order is followed. The Spanish deputy, Don Pedro de Miura, portrayed by Lappan, is sent to enforce the order and meets the dilemma.

THE SUPPORTING cast includes Joseph Aman, Donald Coolidge, Michael Drons, Lowell Dunlap, Thomas Herman, Francis Hogan, Peter Jones, Philip Knauf, John Lootens, John McConville, David Nassar, Michael Siconolfi, Thomas Trevett, and Eugene Walz.

Stage manager is Dennis Costich whose crew is composed of Daniel Doell, Daniel McCarthy, and Patrick Murphy. The business staff is under the direction of Anthony Yazback. He is assisted by John Barett, Alan Dugan, Joseph Fisher, Nicholas Iuppa, Henry Keller, John LeVay, Joseph Mittiga, Alexander Nassar, Rodger Pascarella, Fernard Puglisi, and Alan Vallot.
