

Two Aquinas Seniors Win Scholarships

Two Aquinas Institute seniors were among eight Rochester area recipients of the Frank Gannett Newspaperboy Scholarships.

JOSEPH F. SCHOLAND, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Scholand of 138 Ogden-Patma Town Line Rd., Spencerport, and a member of St. John's parish was awarded a Democrat and Chronicle $3,000 college scholarship.

Scholand stands first in his class and has served for the past year as editor of the school newspaper. He is a member of the Cardinal Newman Library Club and numerous other school organizations. He is also a Merit Scholarship winner.

PHILIP NOTHNAGLE, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Nothnagle of 133 Dove St. and a member of Holy Rosary parish was awarded a Times-Union college scholarship.

Nothnagle is secretary of the Student Council at Aquinas and president of the Spanish Club. He is also a recent winner of the Monroe County Catholic War Veterans Oratorical contest.

The scholarships may be used at the college of the winner's choice. The awards will be presented formally at the Aquinas Institute commencement ceremonies at the Eastman Theatre in June. Winners were chosen for scholastic ability, general school records, newspaperboy ability and standing in the community.

DICK MILLER of N. J. Miller's Son, can talk of nothing but the St. Boniface men-of-the-parish 3-day Retreat at the Notre Dame Retreat House, May 23-25. I tried to get the particulars about a fishing trip he and Mrs. Miller were scheduled for last week but newspaperman Miller refused to be side-tracked.

"This annual Retreat just for the men is the GREATEST! You have no idea what three days of silence in the House-of-the-Lord can do for you Frank," he enthused. "Why it seems to bring your life and way of living into the right focus, it helps you to..."

"Wait a minute, you don't have to sell me on it Dick, I'm one of the gang, remember? Only I go with the Holy Rosary men."

"That's right. Well, we're looking for a record turnout this year and so!... maybe you can express our thanks to the women of St. Boniface for doing their share in getting along without the men folk for the retreat, spouse you could ole buddy?"

"You mean like saying that you know that there are a lot of kids with bikes to be fixed and there are storm windows to be taken down... and cellars to be cleaned, yards to be seeded... and you want to thank the ladies for doing without the man of the house for three days, is that it?"

"You read my mind Frank! Did you ever study mental telepathy?"

"No, but I learned how to read an early age and that's what you have written down on your memo pad there to tell me to day."
