DOINGS AT THE DALY'S Merry Month...

By Mary Tinley Daly

No matter where you live, you are undoubtedly playing the necktie-and-white-glove circuit, just as we are.

And these are just your own-windup activities for the year. There are also your husband's and your children's.

This was Ginny's week-end. In necktie and white gloves respectively we went on Saturday afternoon to the open house at her grammar school, saw the school papers—some good, some bad—talked to the teacher, met the other parents.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON: don the regalia again for the awarding of medals to the Catholic Girl Scouts of the area. That Sunday afternoon service was an example of good programming if ever we saw it—and we have attended more Scout "do's" than we'd ever like to attend again!

"We shall give out the 200 individual awards," came the announcement after the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." The Head of the House and I glanced at each other dismally. Other sets of parents exchanged similar glances.

"Plus a sermon yet," growlingly murmured the Head of the House, pointing to the program. Somehow, though those 200 had their individual moments in the sun, it didn't take too long.

But what a sermon! It couldn't have taken more than seven minutes but we could have let the rooster cry, listening far longer. Almed right straight at the audience of Girl Scouts, not over their heads at the parents, Rev. Edward J. Stokes, S.J., told of his "girl friend," Little Lulu.

"She wanted to be a Girl Scout," Father Stokes said, "but her mother wouldn't let her because she wasn't ready. And do you know why?"

Mercy High Alumnae Annual Breakfast Sunday

The Class of 1958 will be officially received into the alumnae association of Our Lady of Mercy High School at the annual alumnae Communion Breakfast, to be held in the gym on Sunday, May 25.

Father Richard Torney will celebrate Mass at 9 a.m. in the Motherhouse Chapel, preceding the breakfast.

Elaine Raycroft '56 is general chairman, assisted by the following: committee members: Carol McEneaney '56, reservations; Eileen Murphy '56, who will be assisted by Theresa Austin Dieter '43, Bernice Renaud Gottry '32, Eileen O'Meara '56, and Bette Allison '57; publicity, Jacqueline Galland '56. Reservations must be made by Tuesday, May 20, by contacting Miss Raycroft, 36 Elm Dr. or any one of the reservation committee.

Congratulations will be extended to Carolyn Knipper, president of the class of '58, and her assistants for signing up 100 percent membership for the senior class in the association.

Announcement of new officers will also be made at the breakfast. Rotating officers are Jeanette Thomas Culliss '33, president, and Alice Berdel '52, treasurer.

IN A FEW more brief sentences, Father Stokes noted that Girl Scouts are trustworthy and growing toward maturity; that they must not only be "jelly bean" but "soup" conscious and that his little friend Lulu was not yet ready to be Scout.

"Am I a jelly bean or a souper?" our Scout asked as we met her outside, in the pouring rain.

"You're super!" we hustled her to the car parked down the street.

Back into the drenching rain, and home. Off with the white gloves, off with the necktie, Ginny's pink dress, replaced by a bathrobe as homework started.

Nazareth Names New Instructor

Marie A. Fragola was appointed to the Nazareth College faculty as instructor of Maternal-Child health. Her appointment was effective May 1.

She received her B.S. in Nursing from Catholic University of America, Washington; D. C. in 1954 and did graduate work in the maternal-child health program at Teachers College, Columbia University. In 1956 she received her M.A. in Nursing Education from Columbia.

Miss Fragola's experience includes nursing of children as a staff nurse, clinical instructor and pediatric supervisor-instructor in hospitals and schools of nursing in Rochester and Syracuse.

Miss Fragola will be located at the Syracuse Memorial Hospital as instructor of the Nazareth College students obstetric and pediatric nursing.

Rebecca Merkel Wins Nursing Scholarship

Geneva—Geneva Chapter of Catholic Nurses has awarded the 1958 Nursing Scholarship to Rebecca Merkel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Merkel of Geneva. She is a senior in De Sales High School.

The award, the Bishop Kearney Nursing Scholarship, entitles Miss Merkel to a three-year nursing course, leading to an R.N. degree. She will begin her career in St. Mary's School of Nursing, Rochester, this fall.

MISS MERKEL has been an honor roll student at De Sales, is active in the Sodality, and was highly recommended by De Sales faculty as possessing outstanding qualifications.

This is the third nursing scholarship awarded by Geneva Chapter. The scholarships are mainly financed by the generous patronage of the people of Geneva at the annual rummage sale sponsored by the Catholic Nurses.

MEMBERS of the scholarship committee are Rev. John Loughlin, moderator of Geneva Chapter; Rev. John Moran, principal of De Sales High School, who act as advisors with no vote; Mrs. Loretta Lirnelan, president of the Geneva chapter, Mrs. Catherine

She Will Wear 46-Year-Old Veil

Wayland—Carol Cole, daughter of Chief and Mrs. Nathan V. Cole of Wayland will make her first Communion, Sunday, May 18, wearing a 46-year-old veil.

The veil was made for Carol's great-aunt, Mrs. John J. Hoffman of Tompkins, Pa. The veil has been worn in succession by each girl member of the family. It has been worn for First Communions, confirmations and various processions over the years.

Carol will make her First Communion at St. Joseph's Church.

Among Women Feminine Stamina

By Mary Lennon Snyder

If any proof is needed to demonstrate the indelible qualities of the average modern woman, a study of her schedule at any time should be sufficient to observe this energetic mortal during the months of May and June is almost to strain one's powers of belief.

If a mother, she must prepare the inner psyche and the outer shell of one or more children for First Holy Communion, Confirmation and or graduation.

She must advise perplexed relatives as to commemorative gifts; keep an orderly schedule in spite of rehearsals, parties, and class days.

Furthermore she must attend a plethora of banquets, buffet suppers and picnics where mentally and physically she is pined with rich and, sometimes, indigestible comestibles.

IN VIEW OF all this, there occurred in our community last week a most heartening evidence of feminine stamina and good will.

Answering a call for volunteer assistance from our local Catholic hospital, a group of about 100 women gathered at Mt. Carmel High School where we accepted a constitution, elected officers and formulated plans for the new organization.

Couple Wed In Geneva

Geneva—Miss Bertha Mary Haberfield of Dundee and Harry Duffy of Geneva were married in St. Stephen Church on May 10 by the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ruscobee Haberfield of Penn Yan. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duffy of Dundee.

The bride was given in marriage by George Fulton of Geneva. Mrs. George Fulton was maid of honor and Miss Alka Haberfield, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. John Doyle of Lyons was best man and Robert Fulton, usher.

A reception was held at Lafayette Inn. Following a wedding trip, the couple will live at 29 Elmwood Pl.
