

Auburn Events

Mercy Auxiliary Names Officers

Auburn—Mrs. Thomas D. Stapleton was elected president of the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary of Auburn at an organizational meeting May 6 at Mt. Carmel High School. Mrs. Raymond P. Riordan temporary chairman, conducted the meeting which resulted in the adoption of a constitution and election of officers.

PRINCIPALS at organizational meeting of newly formed Mercy Hospital Auxiliary held in Mount Carmel High School, Auburn. They are: (from left) Mrs. Donald H. Halsey, director of Volunteer Services at Auburn Memorial Hospital, speaker; Joseph J. Cuddy, Mercy Hospital board president; Mrs. Wallace L. Duck, newly appointed director of Volunteer services, Mercy Hospital; Mrs. Thomas D. Stapleton, president being congratulated by Cuddy and Mrs. Raymond P. Riordan, chairman of steering committee. (A. G. Tarby photo).

Places Second In KC Contest

Geneva — Michael Donahue, De Sales High School senior, placed second in the Knights of Columbus District speaking contest held recently in Syracuse.

The Geneva youth lost out to John Burke, Solway High School, by two points in competition held in St. John the Baptist School hall, Syracuse.

Nine contestants from Birmingham, Elmira, Rochester and other area communities took part.

Burke will now go on to the state finals to be held at Elmira May 23 in connection with the State K. of C. convention. Donahue will be his alternate.

Top winner in the finals will receive $2,500 scholarship while the runner-up will get a $1500 award.

DeSales High May Queen KAY HAMILL, a senior at DeSales High School in Geneva, reigns as Queen over May Day ceremonies held on the school lawn and sponsored by the Sodality. Robert Murray was crown bearer. Photo by F. B. Oakley, Geneva.

Carmel Students Gain Awards

Auburn—In addition to the scholarship previously announced, Mt. Carmel students have won the following:

Joseph Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Adams of Sherwood has won a regents scholarship for engineering, chemistry, physics and mathematics.

Catherine M. Walsh, daughter of Mrs. Rachel Walsh of 41 Park Pl. won a regents scholarship awarded to the children of veterans.

Miss Walsh has also been selected as the good citizen of Mt. Carmel and thereby recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizen Certificate. She is vice president of the senior class and a graduate of St. Francis of Assisi School and a member of that parish.

Candida Pilla Gets Musicianship Trophy

Candida Pilla of Trenton, N. J., prizes awarded students in college and high school classes throughout the country. She is a lyric soprano.

Dr. George N. Shuster, Hunter College president, praised Catholic music instructors for teaching a subject which he called "an integral part of modern education."

Advertisement for Mattie Funeral Service, Inc. located at 300 Cumberland St. with contact information for John W. Mattie, Pres. and John A. Mattie, Treas.

Advertisement for Rund's Lobster and Steaks, Chops, Chicken. Located at 48 South Ave. with phone number 6-1750.

Advertisement for Neighborhood Drug Stores. Insurance service for 106 years. Egbert F. Ashley Co. located at 328 E. Main St.

Advertisement for St. Joseph's Nurse Institute. Educational problems of today took on new meaning for 14 Nazareth Academy National Honor Society members.

Advertisement for St. Andrew's Parish Mandell's Pharmacy. Located at 175 Mandell St. with phone number 7-0785.

Advertisement for St. Charles Borromeo Dewey Ave. Pharmacy. Prescription specialists located at 2910 Dewey Ave.

Advertisement for Our Lady of Lourdes Chilson Pharmacy. Located at 1704 Monroe Ave. with phone number 6-6402.

Geneva Reports

Geneva Knights Slate Communion Breakfast

Geneva — Annual Knights of Columbus Communion breakfast will be held Sunday, May 18, in the Hotel Seneca following attendance at the 7 a.m. Mass in St. Francis de Sales Church.

John A. Murray is chairman. Bernard C. Lynch is ticket chairman and Joseph W. Galasso is in charge of arrangements at the church. Francis Caravita is completing arrangements for the breakfast.

Committee members include William Bauer, Francis W. Clark, Donald Edes, Frank L. Farr, Joseph Helfman, Thomas Long, Henry McDonald, Frank Mc Gugin, Anthony J. Oroszky, William P. Riley, Al Tracey, Frank Verstrete and Richard J. Walsh.

Seton Groups In Action

15TH BRANCH of Seton Workers of St. Mary's Hospital will meet Tuesday, May 20 at the home of Mrs. Paul Neubert of Babcock Drive. Assisting as co-hostesses will be Mrs. William Sullivan and Mrs. Walter Riley.

53RD BRANCH was entertained by Mrs. Thomas Madigan of 275 Clover St. at her home.

53RD BRANCH will meet at home of Mrs. Lawrence Fitzpatrick, Irving Road, Tuesday, May 20.

48TH BRANCH will be entertained by Miss Anne Flood, Pemberton Road, Thursday, May 22, 8:30 p.m.

Childhood School Bake Sale Listed

Final project of the year for the parents group of Holy Childhood School will be a baked food sale to be held at the school, 215 Andrews Street, Saturday, May 17 from 10 to 4. Besides all varieties of home made baked goods, there will be booths of hand made articles, aprons and candy. Coffee and sandwiches will also be served during the day.

Mrs. Daniel Preckan is assisted by the following committee: Mesdames Anthony Montanarella, Dendomme-Ballout, George Covert, Donald Seebach, Paul O'Brien, Chester Harry, John Kammer, Edmund Kolb, Charles Hemmerlich, Peter Lank, William Maxcy, Walter Allen, Laurence Marcollo, Gerald Morris and Miss Emily Scofield.

The public is invited to this sale.

Carmel Ladies Rummage Sale

Auburn—Mrs. Charles Marangola is chairman of the rummage sale sponsored by the Carmel Ladies Club of Mt. Carmel High School on Thursday and Friday, May 22 and 23 at 36 North St.

A committee composed of mothers representing each of the classes will assist her. They are Mrs. Edward Heverin, seniors; Mrs. Herbert Houses, Juniors; Mrs. Louis Guarino, sophomores; and Mrs. John Karpinski, freshmen.

The committee has requested donations of Spring and Summer clothing only and will make arrangements to have clothes picked up at the donor's home where ever necessary.

Advertisement for Harry W. Parker Funeral Director. Located at 114-116 East Miller Street, Newark, New York.

Advertisement for Newark Motors Inc. and Montgomery Ward. Locations in Newark, New York.

Harp's Slate Dance For Africa Missions

Rochester Harps will sponsor a dance for the benefit of the South African Missions Saturday evening, May 17. It will be held at Our Lady of Victory Church hall, 18 Pleasant Street. Dancing will commence at 9:00 p.m. with music supplied by the Harps orchestra.

Father Michael Collieran, S.M.A., will be in attendance.

Exhibitions in Irish step dancing and singing will be highlighted.

Nazareth Academy Music Students Win Top Festival Ratings

Six Nazareth Academy High School music students obtained "A" or "B" class ratings at the New York State School Music Association Festival held in Medina, May 10.

Preparation is according to graded solos taken from the official list. Both ensemble and solo applicants were rated. Nazareth sent six solo entrants.

STUDENTS receiving "A" or "B" ratings are eligible for badges. They are: Agnes Dimino, flute-A; Tolmette Ventura, violin-A; Barbara Bowman, French horn-B; Kathryn Ficker, clarinet-B; Janet Fagan, baritone-B; Kathleen Farrell, piano-A. Accompanists for the Nazareth students were Judith Bowman and Stephen Savjko.

This is the first time Nazareth students have played solos in the Spring Festival held annually although about a dozen members of the band and orchestra have played in the combined allstate organizations held by the New York State School Music Association for the past several years.

Members who attended were Theresa Henninger, Carolyn De Vonnis, Kathleen Scanlon, Monica McAlpine, Mary Wehner, Mary Ann Mayer, Mary Francis Gibbons, Patricia Scaider, Emily Radtke, Patricia Lewandowski, Patricia Fortbauer, Jean Meeh, Patricia Roney, Patricia Marion and their sponsor, Sister Rose Ellen.

Academy Students At Conference

Educational problems of today took on new meaning for 14 Nazareth Academy National Honor Society members at the annual regional conference of the National Honor Societies of Western New York, sponsored by Clarence Central High School, Clarence, May 10.

St. Joseph's Nurse At Institute

Geraldine Kelly, R.N. of St. Joseph's Hospital's Physical Therapy Department is attending an institute on rehabilitation nursing at West Haverstraw Hospital, West Haverstraw, from May 12 through May 23.

Advertisement for Ockenden Dairy. Golden Crown Premium Milk. 117 Dunning Ave. Dial - 3-7951

Advertisement for O'Donnell Electric Co., Inc. Electrical Contractors. 33 Market Street. Phone 3-6221

Advertisement for Quality Meats Home Town Market. Phone 3-6088. 41 North St. Fred L. Lane's

Advertisement for Lynch Furniture Co. For Over Fifty Years Geneva's Home Store. 479 Exchange St.

Advertisement for Finger Lakes Laundries and Cleaners. Complete Home Service. 511 Washington St.

Advertisement for Geneva Milk Company. Mile and Milk Products. W. North on Maple Street

Advertisement for Baker & Stark, Inc. A Good Clothing Store Since 1899. 489 Exchange St.

Advertisement for Personal Loans. Free life insurance. No investigation charge. Only one rate of interest. The National Bank of Auburn.

Advertisement for Auburn Trust Company. A Low-Cost Loan. Making it easy to modernize. Adding improvements to your home? Re-pairing? If it's a question of money, we have the answer.

NEWS SPORTS MUSIC

IT'S MODERN DYNAMIC RADIO

DIAL WNET RADIO 1280