

Mercy Students Set Fashion Show

Students of the Home Economics Department of Our Lady of Mercy High School are putting on a fashion show and tea at the school on Wednesday, May 21, at 2:15 p.m.

The students are to model their own creations, which will include sportswear, suits, skirts, blouses and dresses and coats of tailored and dressy designs.

After the fashion show, the Senior Class Mothers will be honored at a tea, where all the "goodies" will be the product of another branch of that same department. Mothers of the Juniors will be hostesses that day.

Graduates Win Scholarships

Sister M. Emile, S.S.J., Nazareth College alumna was awarded a tuition scholarship by Marquette College for graduate work in French during the summer session. Sister Emile was a French major at Nazareth and received her B.A. in June, 1957. She studied last Summer at La Val University in Quebec.

Rita Valerio, Nazareth College alumna, has been awarded one of the National Science scholarships for mathematics teachers. She will attend the Mathematics Workshop at Notre Dame University this Summer.

Miss Valerio has also received a teaching assistantship at Marquette University in the Mathematics Department for the year 1957-58. Since she received her degree from Nazareth College in 1953, she has been teaching mathematics at Charlotte High School, Rochester.

Nazareth College Moving-Up Day Exercises Held

Nazareth College observed moving-up day on Thursday, May 8. After the procession of the classes into the gymnasium, the significance of the ceremony was explained by Candida Pilla, outgoing president of the Undergraduate Association.

NEW OFFICERS of the various school organizations were presented by those retiring from the offices. Miss Pilla presented Stephanie Sullivan, new president of the undergraduate association, and Moyra Neville, the new vice-president, Mary Agnes Lynch, resident president, Jeanette Martino, introduced her successor, Helen Kennedy.

Martha Sullivan, prefect of the Sodality, turned her office over to Kenise Murphy; Mary Jo Gleason, prefect of the Missions, to Mary Spaulding; Publications editors, Karen Bove of Varsity Year, Virginia Rohrer of the Gleaner and Bette Gantlett of Sillitum, transferred their positions to Sheila Tekian, Mary Victoria Waters and Elda Clasing.

Tribute was paid to Sister Rosa Angela, dean of the college, and to the faculty. With the singing of class songs, tassels were changed to indicate the change in status of the various class years.

The senior class of Nazareth College entertained the members of the faculty at tea in McNeill Hall following the annual moving-up exercises.

Resident students will hold their annual dinner at 8 p.m. on Sunday, May 18. Jeanette Martino, senior resident president, will preside.

Nursing Students To Attend Conference

Three Nazareth College nursing students will attend the 1957 national conference of the National Student Nurses Association in Atlantic City June 5-9.

They are Geraldine Gersbach, sophomore, recently chosen as the ideal student nurse for the Rochester area, Rosemary Dezel, Webber and Jacqueline Platt, Montour Falls, senior nurses. Miss Gersbach will compete in the competition to choose the student nurse of New York State at the Student Association of New York nurses convention in Rochester in October.

Confratern's

Little Billy, who does very well in the third grade, came home one day and told his mother, "We've been studying confrotn's!"

His mother, who had once taught school herself, was stumped. "Studying what?" she exclaimed.

"Confrotn's," repeated Billy. "You know, like aren't and haven't."

Students Donate Money To Missions

Through personal sacrifices during the Lenten season, college students were able to send $400 to mission orders for the support of native seminarians, now studying for the priesthood.

$200 was sent to St. Patrick's Seminary, Kiltegan, Eire, for the training of an African priest and $200 to the Marquette League, New York, for the training of an Indian priest here in America.

Earlier in the year, $100 was given for the support of a seminarian in India, making a total of $500 donated towards the work of promoting a native clergy.
