Father Dougherty

Following is the text of the eulogy given by Rev. Alphonsus P. Crummins at the funeral of Rev. Emmett T. Dougherty, pastor of St. Felix Church, Clifton Springs. The funeral was held in that church Monday, May 19. Father Dougherty died Thursday, May 15, 1958.

"Every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in the things that appertain to God" (St. Paul's Letter to the Hebrews).

As holy Mother Church prepared to celebrate the anniversary of the return of our Saviour to His home in Heaven, His work upon earth accomplished, one of God's chosen ones — another Christ — was, also, to return home.

A short while before he was to celebrate Mass on last Thursday, the Feast of the Ascension, on the altar he had carefully prepared the night before, Father Dougherty was called home. His work upon earth accomplished.

FOR 36 YEARS he had worked in the Lord's Vineyard faithfully serving His Master as an Assistant in Rochester, Chaplain at a State Institution and Catholic Hospital, as Pastor of Sodas, Scipio Center, Moravia and for the past 12 years as Pastor of this Parish.

In recent years he was handicapped in his work by illness but continued to display the same zeal and faithfulness to duty that characterized all of his priestly years. At a time in life when most priests can look forward to more fruitful years serving their Master he was called to his reward.

In the plan of Redemption the priest is the mediator between God and man.

It is the priest who through the Mass continues the perfect sacrifice of Calvary offered by Christ on the first Good Friday, who brings to the individual the merits of Christ's death on the Cross, who has the power to call the Son of God from Heaven to become present upon the altar. If it did not happen no one would dare to imagine that God would give such power to human man.

Truly, a "priest is ordained for men in the things that appertain to God."

A priest comes in contact with more people, more intimately, probably more than any other person. He unites them in spiritual life in Baptism, forgives and comforts them in Confession, feeds them with the Body of Christ in Holy Communion, binds them together for life in Marriage, prepares them for their departure from this world and speaks the final words over their mortal remains.

All during their lives he counsels, comforts and guides them. Father Dougherty did these things for you, my dear people.

He baptized your children, prepared them for and gave them their First Holy Communion, made them ready for the Sacrament of Confirmation, witnessed your marriages, prayed over your departed loved ones. And while doing these things he did not neglect the temporal things in the Parish. He took care of God's House.

A PRIEST by the very nature of his calling comes in contact with the sick and those in pain.

But it was to be the experience of Father Dougherty to be associated with the sick and the afflicted more than most priests. As Chaplain at St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester for a time and

Vatican Studies Sainthood Cause

Vatican City — (RNS) — The Sacred Congregation of Rites met in preparatory session here to discuss two miracles attributed to the Blessed Sister Maria Bertilla Boscardin, an Italian nun who belonged to the Teaching Sisters of St. Dorothy, Daughters of the Sacred Heart.

Sister Maria Bertilla was born in Vicenza in 1888 and died in 1922. She spent most of her life caring for the sick, especially in hospitals for infectious diseases. The nun was beatified June 8, 1952.

The congregation also discussed the beatification cause of an Italian priest and a Swiss nun. They are Father Giovanni de Gesù Maria, who was born in 1877 and died in 1929 after serving as a priest for 47 years; and Sister Maria Bernarda Heimgartner, co-founderess of the Sisters of the Holy Cross of Meiringen (Switzerland), who died in 1893.

Beatification is a preliminary step toward canonization.

Army Chaplains Chief To Retire

Washington, D.C.—(RNS)—Chaplain (Maj. Gen.) Patrick J. Ryan (Roman Catholic), chief of Army chaplains, will retire November 1 after 30 years of service in the chaplains corps.

'Sanctus, Benedictus' Singing Explained

Vatican City — (NC) — The Sanctus and Benedictus may be sung together before the Consecration during High Mass, the Sacred Congregation of Rites has announced.

In answer to questions submitted by several liturgists, the Congregation said there is full freedom to sing the two portions of the same prayer together or to follow the custom of singing the Sanctus before the Consecration and the Benedictus afterwards.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

A HUNDRED YEARS FROM NOW men will see that Communism played into the hands of God. As Joseph said to his brethren who sold him into slavery: "You intended it for evil, but God intended it for good." Already we can see that the blood of martyrs through Communism has become the seed of Christians in Korea.

ONE PRIEST ALONE has 450 converts under instruction. Other priests have convert classes in from ten to twenty-six villages, traveling from one to the other on bicycle.

ONE HUMOROUS INCIDENT involved a convert who was a fisherman. Village dogs always tried to steal his fish. One day, a dog he had never seen before came to his stand, but instead of stealing a fish he just wagged his tail in friendly greeting. The fish merchant inquired after the owner of such a polite dog. When told that he belonged to the priest the old man went to Father and said: "If you train your dogs so well, it ought to be a good religion." The story, of course, leaves out grace which is always the reason for conversions. But the point is that one of the most fertile fields in the missions at present, is Korea.

IF THE WAGGING OF A DOG'S TAIL can bring a soul to instruction, then maybe our tale will bring you to see that many blessings will come to you if you aid our missionaries in Korea. But aid them by giving to the Holy Father, through his Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Let him make the distribution. After all he knows better than any of us the needs of the world. You give to him when you give to his Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

GOD LOVE YOU to J.S.C. for $45. "Kindly accept this small gift in thanksgiving for completing forty-five years in the Police Department." . . . to Mrs. M.A.V. for $10. "This is my way of saying 'thank you' to Our Dear Lord and all Heaven for helping me regain my health after an operation." . . . to T.M.K.F. for $100 "For the Holy Father's Missions in thanksgiving for a favor received." . . . "to all those who were taxed too much and sent their refunds to help the missionaries who do not hesitate to overtax their energies for the sake of the sick, poor and needy of the world."

OUR BLESSED MOTHER LOVES all of her children the world over. You can prove that you share her Mother love by praying the WORLD MISSION ROSARY for the poor of the world. The seedling offering of $2 that you send along with your request for the WORLD MISSION ROSARY will aid materially those whom your prayers aid spiritually.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N.Y. or your Diocesan Director, Rev. Geo. S. Wood, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.
